Louisiana State University

Through the College of Engineering, LSU is the only university in North America where future petroleum engineers can get hands-on training in well control by working at a full-scale well control research and training facility, the Petroleum Engineering Research & Technology Transfer Laboratory.

The Daily Reveille, LSU’s student-run newspaper, was recently named the nation’s best all-around student newspaper by the Society of Professional Journalists.

LSU has produced more Truman Scholars than Princeton, Dartmouth, or Columbia over the past 11 years.

The LSU College of Science recently received an $11 million grant for the National Institutes of Environmental Health Sciences Superfund Research Center, one of only 16 university centers in the U.S.

Our graduate writing program is ranked in the top 25 nationally, and works by its faculty and graduates appear everywhere from the best-seller list, to HBO’s Tremé, to The Late Show with David Letterman.

The LSU College of Art & Design’s Robert S. Reich School of Landscape Architecture is consistently ranked as a top school in the country in undergraduate education.

The LSU Department of Theatre is one of a handful of programs in the country with an affiliate professional theatre, Swine Palace, which recently celebrated its 20th season.

LSU is an equal opportunity/access university.
