DID YOU KNOW?

- The new IBM Services Center in Baton Rouge represents Louisiana’s largest software development project to date. IBM works closely with LSU professors to provide internship opportunities and potential jobs to computer science students.

- Through the College of Engineering, LSU is the only university in North America where future petroleum engineers can get hands-on training in well control by working at a full-scale well control research and training facility, the Petroleum Engineering Research & Technology Transfer Laboratory.

- LSU is home to one of 46 multi-million-dollar Energy Frontier Research Centers established by the U.S. Department of Energy Office of Science at universities, national laboratories, and nonprofit organizations across the nation in an effort to lay the scientific groundwork for fundamental advances in new, cleaner, and improved forms of energy.

- The LSU College of Art & Design’s Robert S. Reich School of Landscape Architecture is consistently ranked as a top school in the country in undergraduate education.

- The Daily Reveille, LSU’s student-run newspaper, was recently named the nation’s best all-around student newspaper by the Society of Professional Journalists.

- LSU’s textiles, apparel, and merchandising program in the College of Agriculture is top-notch and has placed students in internships with Vera Wang, Tommy Hilfiger, and Ralph Lauren, just to name a few.
