WHEREAS, Mr. Harry J. Longwell has a long and distinguished record of professional accomplishment, civic service, and personal and corporate philanthropic efforts on behalf of the University; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Longwell’s extraordinary integrity, tremendous dedication, remarkable career achievements, exemplary personal attributes, and active community involvement consistently characterize him as an outstanding leader as he builds relationships with internal and external constituents through the motivation, persuasion, and inspiration of all with whom he comes in contact; and
WHEREAS, Mr. Longwell serves his community as a member of the advisory board of Habitat for Humanity in Dallas, United Way of Dallas, boards of directors of the Greater Houston Partnership and the American Petroleum Institute, and the board of directors of the National Action Council for Minorities in Engineering (NACME) through which his wise counsel and strong and effective leadership have made him one of the most respected board members; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Longwell is a long-time supporter of higher education through his service as a member of the LSU Foundation since 1985, currently on the board of directors, and of the LSU Alumni Board of Directors, as well as on the board of visitors of the University of Texas M.D. Anderson Cancer Center in Houston, and as chairman of the board of trustees of the University of Dallas; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Longwell is a dedicated advocate and supporter of the College of Engineering at LSU, through service to the college and the university as a member of the Industrial Advisory Councils of both the Petroleum Engineering Department and the College of Engineering, establishment of an endowed professorship and a scholarship, and visits to the college to render services on an as needed basis; and

WHEREAS, he has been instrumental in strengthening the relationship between ExxonMobil and LSU over the years, resulting in the company’s establishment of a scholarship program in the College of Engineering to encourage the enrollment and graduation of underrepresented minorities in engineering at LSU, and his crafting a mentoring program for scholarship recipients with the local ExxonMobil engineers to generate a significant, meaningful impact on LSU and on the lives of its students; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Longwell conclusively demonstrates a standard of excellence and a deep affection for his alma mater for which he is a role model for LSU students of engineering and a source of pride and honor for the university and the state; and

WHEREAS, it is fitting that the Flagship University recognize Mr. Harry Longwell and acknowledge a lifetime of achievements in the global petroleum industry and his extensive contributions to higher education, in general, and LSU, in particular, by bestowing its highest honor upon him; and

WHEREAS, the LSU Faculty Honorary Degree Committee, LSU System Committee on Awarding Honorary Degrees, the Vice President for Academic Affairs, and the System President have reviewed and approved this recommendation.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Board of Supervisors of Louisiana State University does hereby authorize and award the degree of Doctor of Science honoris causa to Mr. Harry Longwell, to be awarded at the Louisiana State University Commencement ceremony.
