The College of Music & Dramatic Arts is comprised of the Department of Theatre and the School of Music. The Department of Theatre offers theatrical productions under the joint auspices of the LSU Theatre and Swine Palace, the latter being a professional equity theatre. Divisions in the School of Music are: Academic Studies, Bands, Ensembles and Conducting, Instrumental, Keyboard, Music Education, and Voice/Opera. Areas of concentration in the Department of Theatre are: Performance, Design/Technology, Theatre Studies, Arts Administration, and Literature/History/Theory. Both the Department of Theatre and the School of Music offer comprehensive degree programs from the baccalaureate through the doctorate.

The primary goals of the college are:
- to offer advanced training in the performing arts to students who are committed to developing their innate talents;
- to make the performing arts a cultural asset in their lives and the lives of others;
- to prepare graduates for leadership roles and careers in the performing arts.

The School of Music and the Department of Theatre at LSU have long been recognized regionally and nationally for the quality of their performance and research programs. Their faculties have distinguished themselves as specialists in their fields and many currently lead their respective discipline’s professional associations. Student groups have appeared as invited featured performers at the Kennedy Center in Washington, D.C., Notre Dame Cathedral (France), Berlin Cathedral (Germany), and at national and regional conferences and conventions. The college provides numerous public performances and opportunities for artistic learning and cultural enrichment throughout the year for students and the community at large.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

Within the framework of University regulations, students may be admitted to the college according to the following policies:
- Entering Freshmen who meet the University admissions standards and have a declared major within the College of Music & Dramatic Arts will be admitted to the College during Freshmen Orientation. Prospective music majors must successfully audition before they may be admitted to the College or register for music major courses.
- Students may be admitted from University College to the College provided that they have credit for the freshman-year courses for the curriculum they plan to follow and with an audition for the appropriate faculty (required for music majors only).

- Transfer students from University College or other divisions of LSU, or from other colleges and universities who have met the general entrance requirements of the University, and who have passed the required audition for admission (music majors only) may be admitted to the College. Students must have earned an overall grade point average of 2.00 or better to be admitted unconditionally to the Bachelor of Music Education degree program. All transfer students in music must take an advisory examination in theory. This includes ear-training, keyboard work, harmonization, and analysis. The results of the examination will be used to aid in planning a practical schedule of courses consistent with the student’s training and ability. The examinations are given at stated times during registration in each semester or summer term. Students in music degree programs also must audition. See the “School of Music” information in this chapter.

CORRESPONDENCE AND EXTENSION CREDIT

Up to one-fourth of the number of hours required for the baccalaureate degree may be taken in correspondence and/or extension courses. Acceptance of such work is contingent upon its applicability to the student’s curriculum; therefore, students should obtain approval from the dean of the College of Music & Dramatic Arts before registering for correspondence courses. Correspondence study in music theory and work in applied music completed through other universities or colleges must be verified by examination and auditions.

REQUIREMENTS FOR A SECOND BACHELOR’S DEGREE

A person holding a baccalaureate degree who wishes to obtain a second baccalaureate degree through this college must satisfactorily complete all requirements in the curriculum selected. In addition, general University requirements for a second bachelor’s degree must be met.

GRADUATE PROGRAMS

AUDITIONS

For Admission • An audition in the major performance medium (piano, voice, etc.) is required of all students wishing to pursue curricula and special courses of vocational as well as avocational nature. These curricula are outlined below. The vocational programs prepare students to be performers, composers, scholars, or teachers and culminate with the undergraduate degree, Bachelor of Music. The Bachelor of Music Education degree is designed to train students to teach vocal and instrumental music in the public schools where state certification is required. Persons wishing a broader variety of subjects in addition to a basic foundation in music may follow the curriculum leading to the Bachelor of Arts in Music.

The first two years of a music therapy curriculum are offered at LSU. Avocational programs are offered through courses in music appreciation, music history, music fundamentals, and jazz history. Participation in the various performing organizations is also available, based upon audition. Private lessons are offered to students who qualify through audition, based on the availability of teacher time.

The curricula in music education meet requirements of the Louisiana State Department of Education for accrediting various types of music instructors in the Louisiana public schools and are approved by the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education and the National Association of Schools of Music. The School of Music is an accredited institutional member of the National Association of Schools of Music.
