LSU’s College of Education, the largest in the state, offers bachelor’s degrees and—through the Graduate School—master’s degrees, certificates of education specialist, and doctoral programs for more than 2,000 students each year. The college has two academic departments: Educational Theory, Policy, and Practice; and Kinesiology. The K-12 University Laboratory School comprises the third department in the college.

The college's primary purpose is the preparation of highly qualified teachers, administrators, counselors, and human service professionals for elementary and secondary schools, for other colleges and universities, and for health, fitness, and sports agencies. The college takes pride in producing graduates who are inquiring pedagogues, effective professionals, and reflective practitioners. Faculty, students, and graduates are actively engaged in the research tradition of the University, thus at the cutting edge in using sophisticated approaches for educating and improving the quality of life for a diverse population in a complex and interdependent world.

The Department of Educational Theory, Policy, and Practice (EPP) offers two undergraduate programs in elementary grades education, including a grades PK-3 collaborative program with the School of Human Ecology, College of Agriculture. The department also offers an undergraduate program in secondary education with an area of concentration in art (grades K-12) and collaborates with other colleges in providing concentrations in other areas of secondary education. Through the Graduate School, the department offers graduate programs in administration, curriculum, educational research, guidance, higher education, instruction, and technology.

The Department of Kinesiology (KIN) provides undergraduate and graduate programs for students interested in the art and science of human movement. Undergraduate areas of concentration are athletic training, sports studies, fitness studies, human movement science, and H&PE teacher certification. Graduates pursue careers in K-12 educational settings, health and fitness programs, and professional programs, such as allied health and medicine.

The University Laboratory School offers a comprehensive K-12 curriculum for approximately 1,300 students. The school serves as a demonstration center for educational methodology and provides for observation, research, and preservice field experiences for students and faculty of the college.

The following programs are offered by the College of Education:

- Bachelor of Science in Early Childhood Education—grades PK-3 (BS);
- Bachelor of Science in Elementary Grades Education (BS);
- Bachelor of Science in Secondary Education (BS) with an area of concentration in art;
- Bachelor of Science in Kinesiology (BS) with areas of concentration in athletic training, sports studies, fitness studies, human movement science, and health and physical education teacher certification.

The following graduate programs are offered through the Graduate School:

- Master of Arts in Teaching (MAT), with certification in elementary (grades 1-5) or an area of secondary (grades 6-12 English, mathematics, sciences, social studies) education (Holmes Program);
- Master of Education (MED) with areas of study in administration, educational technology, guidance, and all areas of teacher certification;
- Master of Arts in Education (MA) with areas of study in administration, curriculum and instruction, counseling and educational research;
- Master of Science in Kinesiology (MS) with areas of study in exercise physiology, motor behavior, and pedagogy;
- Certificate of Education Specialist (EdS) with areas of study in curriculum and instruction, administration, and counseling;
- Doctor of Philosophy in Educational Leadership and Research (PhD) with areas of study in higher education, K-12 education, and research;
- Doctor of Philosophy in Curriculum and Instruction (PhD); and
- Doctor of Philosophy in Kinesiology (PhD) with areas of study in exercise physiology, motor behavior, and pedagogy.

TWO PATHS TO TEACHER CERTIFICATION

LSU is a leader in teacher education reform. Extensive research and practice support two distinct ways to become certified as a teacher—a bachelor’s program or a master’s program. Students may choose from a bachelor’s program in the college (grades PK-3, grades 1-5, grades K-12 art or health and physical education), in the College of Arts and Sciences (grades 6-12 in English, French, history, mathematics, or Spanish), or the College of Basic Sciences (grades 6-12 in biology, chemistry, or physics), or in the College of Music and Dramatic Arts (instrumental or vocal). Or students may choose a master’s program offered by the college for certification in grades 1-5, 6-12, or K-12.

Students interested in special education/elementary grades certification should contact special education faculty in the Department of Educational Theory, Policy, and Practice.

Regardless of the route chosen, students will find that teacher education at LSU links contemporary research and practice, focuses on preparing teachers for a culturally diverse world, provides early and extended experiences in a variety of educational settings, incorporates instructional technology, and prepares PK-12 teachers who truly understand children, content, and pedagogy.
Bachelor's Programs

Undergraduate students who are eager to complete their education in four years may find the bachelor's program most attractive. The College of Education offers undergraduate programs leading to certification in grades 1-5, grades PK-3 (in collaboration with the School of Human Ecology, College of Agriculture), and K-12 (art or health and physical education). The college collaborates with the College of Arts and Sciences and the College of Basic Sciences in programs leading to certification in grades 6-12. Depending upon the area and level of certification desired, students earn bachelor’s degrees from the College of Education, College of Arts and Sciences, or the College of Basic Sciences and attain Louisiana Teacher Certification in programs that combine general education, an area of focus, professional education courses, and practical experiences. These programs are designed for students who know early in their college careers that they want to become teachers and who want to enter the profession immediately following receipt of the bachelor’s degree. Programs feature early and extensive connections between university-based and field-based learning and include at least one full semester of professionally supervised student teaching.

Master's Program

Students who wish to spend extended time developing the expertise to enter the teaching profession with an enhanced capacity for leadership may choose the master's program that includes a full year of graduate-level professional preparation.

Students earn a master's degree and Louisiana Teacher Certification by completing 36-43 credit hours beyond a bachelor's degree in elementary education or in secondary/K-12 education. The program features extended experiences in diverse school settings, the support of peers who work together in small cohort groups, mentoring by graduate faculty, and the development of teacher-researcher skills.

Teacher Education Programs in Other Colleges

Programs in English, French, history, mathematics, and Spanish education are offered through the respective departments in the College of Arts and Sciences, and programs in biology, chemistry, and physics are offered through the College of Basic Sciences. Students prepare for teaching vocal or instrumental music through the College of Music and Dramatic Arts.

ADMISSION/ADVISING

Students anticipating careers in teaching and undergraduate students pursuing a kinesiology degree should contact the Office of Student Services, College of Education, 236 Peabody Hall, to declare their interest and to obtain additional information. The variety of routes to teacher certification and specific general education requirements necessitate early and continuous advising by the college.

Students interested in graduate programs that do not include teacher certification should contact the Graduate School.

LSU TEACHER EDUCATION COUNCIL

The Teacher Education Council provides governance for all University programs which prepare school professionals. It is responsible for setting and achieving teacher education goals, establishing policies, fixing responsibilities for program decision-making, identifying and utilizing resources, and facilitating continuing development and improvement of initial and advanced teacher education programs.

Office of Student Services

The Office of Student Services provides all student-related services for undergraduate students in the college and for master's students seeking teacher certification. The office strives to provide a single, student friendly environment designed to meet all student needs: recruitment, application procedures, admissions, advising and counseling services, student records, scholarships, PRAXIS information, student-related experiences (e.g., student council), degree audits, teacher certification, and alumni follow-up.

Admission to Teacher Education

Undergraduate Programs

Undergraduate students may enter teacher education programs after 24 semester hours with a minimum 2.20 gpa, cumulative and LSU. Formal admission to a specific undergraduate teacher education program/concentration requires a 2.50 gpa, cumulative and LSU, and passing scores on the PRAXIS I: Academic Skills Assessments or minimum ACT composite of 22 or minimum SAT composite of 1030. Admission to upper division professional education courses (3000-level and above) is restricted to students who have been formally admitted to a teacher education program/concentration.

Master's Program (Holmes only)

Elementary Five-Year Program: Admission to the junior year cohort of the elementary certification program leading to the master’s degree (Holmes Program) requires at least 60 semester hours with a minimum 2.75 gpa and passing scores on the PRAXIS I assessments or minimum ACT composite of 22 or minimum SAT composite of 1030. Admission requirements for the Holmes master’s year for elementary certification include admission to the LSU Graduate School and passing scores on PRAXIS II assessments. (See “Holmes Master’s Programs Leading to Teacher Certification” for additional requirements.)

Secondary/K-12 Fifth Year: Admission requirements for the Holmes master’s level secondary/K-12 certification program include admission to the LSU Graduate School and passing scores on the PRAXIS I or minimum ACT composite of 22 or minimum SAT composite of 1030 and PRAXIS II subject area/specialty assessments. (See “Holmes Master’s Programs Leading to Teacher Certification” for additional requirements.)
PRAXIS
Satisfactory scores on the PRAXIS Series are required for teacher certification by the state of Louisiana. Teacher education students must pass all required sections of the PRAXIS Series prior to graduation.

Undergraduate students must have passing scores on the PRAXIS I assessments or minimum ACT composite of 22 or minimum SAT composite of 1030 to be formally admitted to the under-graduate teacher education program/concentration. Undergraduate students are expected to take the required PRAXIS II assessments during the last semester of course work prior to student teaching.

Undergraduate students in the Holmes secondary/K-12 certification program leading to the master’s degree must have passing scores on the PRAXIS I assessments or minimum ACT composite of 22 or minimum SAT composite of 1030 to be formally admitted to the junior year cohort of this five-year program. Students must have passing scores on required PRAXIS II assessments to be formally admitted to the master’s year. Students are encouraged to register for the March testing during their senior year for timely receipt of test scores.

Master’s level students in the Holmes secondary/K-12 certification program must have passing scores on both the PRAXIS I assessments or minimum ACT composite of 22 or minimum SAT composite of 1030 and the appropriate PRAXIS II subject area/specialty test(s) to be formally admitted to the master’s year. Students are expected to take the PRAXIS II: Principles of Learning and Teaching Test during the spring semester of the master’s year and to present passing scores for program completion/graduation. See “Admission to Teacher Education” and “Holmes Master’s Programs Leading to Teacher Certification” for additional requirements for admission. Contact the Office of Student Services, College of Education, for additional information on the PRAXIS Series.

STUDENT RESPONSIBILITY
Students in the College of Education bear final responsibility for selection of their academic programs and adherence to all published regulations and requirements of the college and the University. Ignorance of a rule is not grounds for waiving that rule. Each student must see a counselor for a final degree checkout during the semester prior to the semester in which the degree is to be awarded.

SCHOLASTIC REQUIREMENTS
Retention
The College of Education reserves the right to review at any time a student’s suitability to continue in a teacher education program. Faculty monitor the growth of students enrolled in the college’s programs. In addition to the University’s scholastic requirements, specific retention criteria in the College of Education include the following:

• English Proficiency—Teacher education students must earn a grade of “C” or better in one of the following courses or have the equivalent in transfer credit: ENGL 2000, 1003, 1005 (international students), 2001, or 2002. Students who fail to earn a “C” must repeat the course.

• Grade Point Average Maintenance—A student who fails to earn a 2.00 semester average in any one semester, regardless of overall grade point average, will be placed on college probation. To be removed from college probation, a student must earn a 2.00 or better semester gpa, remediate course deficiencies, and make satisfactory progress in the degree program. A student who fails to earn a 2.00 gpa for two consecutive semesters, regardless of overall gpa, will be dropped from the college.

Basic Undergraduate Degree Requirements
All undergraduate students in the College of Education are required to:

• Satisfactorily complete an approved program of study that has been determined by the faculty of the college and by the University. In addition, programs leading to teacher certification must be approved by the LSU Teacher Education Council and the University Committee on the Evaluation of Teacher Education Programs.

• Teacher Education Program only: Pass all required sections of the PRAXIS Series and earn a grade of “C” or higher in course work as specified by the Louisiana Board of Elementary and Secondary Education.

• Complete the final 25 percent of the program in residence in the College of Education.

CORRESPONDENCE CREDIT
Up to one-fourth of the number of hours required for the baccalaureate degree may be taken through Continuing Education by correspondence courses. Students registered in the College may enroll in a maximum of 19 semester hours of combined resident and correspondence course work during a regular semester (12 semester hours in the summer term).

Students in residence may take courses by correspondence only in exceptional cases (e.g., conflicts between single sections of required courses) and with specific approval of the dean of the college. Students in all programs must complete all correspondence course work prior to the final semester of their program.

ENROLLMENT IN TWO DEGREE PROGRAMS

With the dean’s approval, a student may enroll in two bachelor's degree programs concurrently and thereby earn two degrees or earn one degree with two majors listed on the transcript, provided all requirements are completed as of the same commencement.

Refer to the section on “Earning Two Degrees” in the “Undergraduate Degree Requirements and Regulations” chapter in this catalog.

STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS

The college’s Student Council includes student representatives and members-at-large from each department. The college also sponsors an honorary organization, Kappa Delta Epsilon, for teacher education students; the Kinesiology Club and the Student National Art Education Association.

PHI KAPPA PHI

Founded in 1897 at the University of Maine, Phi Kappa Phi is the nation’s oldest, largest, and most selective honor society for all academic disciplines. Its chapters are on nearly 300 campuses in the United States, Puerto Rico, and the Philippines. Each year, approximately 30,000 members are initiated. Some of the organizations more notable members include former President Jimmy Carter, writer John Grisham, NASA astronaut Wendy Lawrence, and Netscape founder, James Barksdale. The LSU chapter was founded in 1930 as the 43rd chapter in the nation. At the present time, the national office is located on this campus in the French House.

The mission of Phi Kappa Phi is to recognize and promote academic excellence in all fields of higher education and to engage the community of scholars in service to others. Phi Kappa Phi is unique because it recognizes superior scholarship in all academic fields, rather than restricting membership to a limited field.

Juniors in the top 7.5 percent and seniors and graduate students in the top ten percent of their classes may be invited to become members of Phi Kappa Phi. New LSU Phi Kappa Phi members are initiated and honored in the spring semester of each year and wear identifying ribbons on their academic gowns at commencement exercises. Additional information about the Society may be found at www.phikappaphi.org.

HONORS COLLEGE

Students who are interested in dual membership in the Honors College and the College of Education should contact the Honors College for admission information.

The Department of Kinesiology provides graduate and undergraduate programs for students interested in the art and science of human movement. An undergraduate degree in this department provides a broad, general education, with necessary supporting courses in basic sciences, core courses in the kinesiology body of knowledge, and a sequence of courses in an area of concentration. A limited selection of sport and fitness activity classes fundamental to kinesiology majors is available to other majors as electives. Students are prepared to be reflective in their professional practice.

Admission into the Department of Kinesiology

Students wishing to enter the Department of Kinesiology must satisfy the following minimum requirements:

- 24 earned semester hours with a 2.50 cumulative and LSU gpa;
- English proficiency—advanced placement in, credit for, or a grade of “C” or better in ENGL 1001 (1004) and 2000 (1003/1005);
- Math proficiency—advanced placement in, credit for, or a grade of “C” or better in MATH 101 and 102;

Students intending to concentrate in Health and Physical Education Certification must meet the minimum criteria and have acceptable scores on the PRAXIS I or minimum ACT composite of 22 or minimum SAT composite of 1030 to be formally admitted to the Health and Physical Education Certification Program. Admission of students to upper division professional education courses (3000-level and above) is restricted to students who have been formally admitted to the College of Education. See “Requirements for Student Teaching in Secondary and K-12 Subjects” for additional requirements.

Completion of Degree

Degrees in nonteaching areas of kinesiology in this college are conferred when the following conditions have been met:

- Completion of a minimum of 128-130 semester hours with cumulative and LSU averages of 2.50 on all work taken, with no grade less than “C” in specialized academic courses for athletic training, fitness studies, human movement, and sports studies concentrations.

Areas of Concentration

- Athletic Training (46 hrs.)

Special Program Requirements

Students intending to concentrate in Athletic Training must be selected after meeting the minimum departmental and concentration criteria. Due to the limited number of clinical education sites, meeting all criteria for admission does not guarantee acceptance into the concentration. Admission is based upon:

- Completion of the Pre-Professional Orientation Meeting prior to obtaining the 100 hours of volunteer experiences with the LSU Athletic Training staff. Dates and times for each meeting are available on the Department of Kinesiology Web site or by contacting the Director;
- Evaluation of performance during volunteer experience;
- Grade of “B” or better in KIN 2593;
- Interview with program faculty;
- Ability to comply with the Athletic Training Concentration’s technical standards, with or without accommodation, which establishes the essential qualities considered necessary to achieve the knowledge, skills, and competencies of an entry-level athletic trainer. A copy of the technical standards can be found on the Department of Kinesiology Web site.

- Completion of a physical examination (forms obtained in the Pre-Professional Orientation Meeting).
- Favorable completion of an application packet provided by the Director of the Athletic Training Concentration, after completing the Pre-Professional Meeting. The deadline to submit the application packet is 5:00 pm on the second Friday in April. It must be addressed to the Director of the Athletic Training Concentration.

Academic Probation/Dismissal

All students admitted to the Professional Phase of the Athletic Training Concentration program must adhere to the program retention policies as stated in the Athletic Training Student Handbook. The following policies apply to all students admitted to the Professional Phase:

- A student who drops below a cumulative 2.50 gpa after being accepted to the Professional Phase of the program will be placed on academic probation during the following semester. The student may apply for re-entry after raising the cumulative gpa to 2.50 or better. Approval for re-entry is not guaranteed.
- A student who receives a grade lower than a “B” in any athletic training concentration course will be required to retake the course. Students may repeat a course once to achieve a “B” grade, but they will not be permitted to continue in those courses that require the deficient grade as a prerequisite.
- A student who fails to maintain the required gpa, violates policies on established clinical site requirements, or violates codes of moral/ethical conduct may be dismissed from the Professional Phase of the concentration program. (See current policies in the Athletic Training Student Handbook, LSU Athletic Training Student Policies & Procedures Manual, and Code of Ethics of the National Athletic Trainers Association.)
- Any student requesting readmission to the Professional Phase of the concentration must follow the appeal process as outlined in the current Athletic Training Student Handbook.

Students graduating with the Athletic Training concentration are eligible to sit for the National Athletic Trainers’ Association Board of Certification (NATA-BOC) athletic training certification examination in order to become a Certified Athletic Trainer (ATC).

The University Laboratory School, an integral part of the College of Education, is maintained for observation, research, and pre-service field experiences in grades K through 12. The Laboratory School, therefore, maintains a staff of teachers for the purpose of instructing children, demonstrating teaching procedures to pre-service teachers and observers, developing innovative programs, conducting educational research, acquainting pre-service and in-service teachers with approved and tested teaching procedures and viewpoints, and mentoring pre-service teachers.

The Laboratory School serves as a demonstration center for educational methodology. Faculty members demonstrate reflective practices through classroom research relative to the development of concepts and principles. Graduate and undergraduate students observe and participate in the use of instructional and testing materials. Graduate students and University faculty have opportunities to utilize the school for research studies.

A limited number of pupils can be accommodated in the Laboratory School. The admission process is designed to provide a diverse student population representative of the general population.

Tuition and activity fees are charged for each pupil in grades K through 12.
