The College of Music & Dramatic Arts is comprised of the Department of Theatre and the School of Music. The Department of Theatre offers theatrical productions under the joint auspices of the LSU Theatre and Swine Palace, the latter being a professional equity theatre. Divisions in the School of Music are:
Academic Studies, Bands, Ensembles and Conducting, Instrumental, Keyboard, Music Education, and Voice/Opera. Areas of concentration in the Department of Theatre are:
Performance, Design/Technology, Theatre Studies, Arts Administration, and Literature/History/Theory. Both the Department of Theatre and the School of Music offer comprehensive degree programs from the baccalaureate through the doctorate.

The primary goals of the college are:
• to offer advanced training in the performing arts to students who are committed to developing their innate talents;
• to make the performing arts a cultural asset in their lives and the lives of others;
• to prepare graduates for leadership roles and careers in the performing arts.

The School of Music and the Department of Theatre at LSU have long been recognized regionally and nationally for the quality of their performance and research programs.
Their faculties have distinguished themselves as specialists in their fields and many currently lead their respective discipline’s professional associations. Student groups have appeared as invited featured performers at the Kennedy Center in Washington, D.C., Notre Dame Cathedral (France), Berlin Cathedral (Germany), and at national and regional conferences and conventions.

The college provides numerous public performances and opportunities for artistic learning and cultural enrichment throughout the year for students and the community at large.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

Within the framework of University regulations, students may be admitted to the college according to the following policies:
• Entering Freshmen who meet the University admissions standards and have a declared major within the College of Music & Dramatic Arts will be admitted to the College during Freshmen Orientation.
Prospective music majors must successfully audition before they may be admitted to the College or register for music major courses.
• Students may be admitted from University College to the College provided that they have credit for the freshman-year courses for the curriculum they plan to follow and with an audition for the appropriate faculty (required for music majors only).

• Transfer students from University College or other divisions of LSU, or from other colleges and universities who have met the general entrance requirements of the University, and who have passed the required audition for admission (music majors only) may be admitted to the College. Students must have earned an overall grade point average of 2.00 or better to be admitted unconditionally to the Bachelor of Music Education degree program. All transfer students in music must take an advisory examination in theory. This includes ear-training, keyboard work, harmonization, and analysis. The results of the examination will be used to aid in planning a practical schedule of courses consistent with the student’s training and ability. The examinations are given at stated times during registration in each semester or summer term. Students in music degree programs also must audition. See the “School of Music” information in this chapter.

CORRESPONDENCE AND EXTENSION CREDIT

Up to one-fourth of the number of hours required for the baccalaureate degree may be taken in correspondence and/or extension courses. Acceptance of such work is contingent upon its applicability to the student’s curriculum; therefore, students should obtain approval from the dean of the College of Music & Dramatic Arts before registering for correspondence courses. Correspondence study in music theory and work in applied music completed through other universities or colleges must be verified by examination and auditions.

REQUIREMENTS FOR A SECOND BACHELOR’S DEGREE

A person holding a baccalaureate degree who wishes to obtain a second baccalaureate degree through this college must satisfactorily complete all requirements in the curriculum selected. In addition, general University

PHI KAPPA PHI

Founded in 1897 at the University of Maine, Phi Kappa Phi is the nation’s oldest, largest, and most selective honor society for all academic disciplines. Its chapters are on nearly 300 campuses in the United States, Puerto Rico, and the Philippines. Each year, approximately 30,000 members are initiated. Some of the organization’s more notable members include former President Jimmy Carter, writer John Grisham, NASA astronaut Wendt Lawrence, and Netscape founder James Barksdale. The LSU chapter was founded in 1930 as the 43rd chapter in the nation. At the present time, the national office is located on this campus in the French House.

The mission of Phi Kappa Phi is to recognize and promote academic excellence in all fields of higher education and to engage the scholarly community of scholars in service to others. Phi Kappa Phi is unique because it recognizes superior scholarship in all academic fields, rather than restricting membership to a limited field. Juniors in the top 7.5 percent and seniors graduate students in the top ten percent of their classes may be invited to become members of Phi Kappa Phi. New LSU Phi Kappa Phi members are initiated and honored in the spring semester each year and wear identifying ribbons on their academic gowns at commencement exercises. Additional information about the Society may be found at www.phikappaphi.org.
available, based upon audition. Private lessons are offered to students who qualify through audition, based on the availability of teacher time.

The curricula in music education meet requirements of the Louisiana State Department of Education for accrediting various types of music instructors in the Louisiana public schools and are approved by the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education and the National Association of Schools of Music. The School of Music is an accredited institutional member of the National Association of Schools of Music.

AUDITIONS

For Admission • An audition in the major performance medium (piano, voice, etc.) is required of all students wishing to pursue curricula in the School of Music. The audition can be on campus or by tape recording. Contact the School of Music for details.

For Applied Music Courses • All applied music courses are open to both majors and nonmajors by audition only. New students or reentry students who have been out of school for more than one year and plan to continue in a performance curriculum should contact the School of Music to arrange an audition during the semester prior to the one in which the student wishes to be enrolled. All students must complete an audition before registering for applied music courses. Auditions may be arranged during registration at the beginning of each semester, but it is recommended that this audition occur no later than the semester prior to entry.

For Ensemble Courses • All music ensemble courses are open to both majors and nonmajors by audition only, with the exception of MUS 4230, 4232, and 4233 which require no audition. Students should contact the director of the ensemble in which they wish to participate to arrange an audition during the registration period the semester prior to the one in which the student wishes to participate. Auditions may also be arranged during late registration at the beginning of each semester.

GENERAL REQUIREMENTS

All students enrolled for private lessons in performance, regardless of their college or school (with the exception of graduate keyboard and graduate voice students) may, at the discretion of the dean of the School of Music, in consultation with the conductor of the organization concerned and the applied teacher, be required to participate in one of the major performing organizations for laboratory work to the appropriate undergraduate committee. Consult the guidelines, standards, and procedures developed by each individual area.

CURRICULUM IN MUSIC THERAPY

LSU has a program in music therapy coordinated with Loyola University in New Orleans. Contact the assistant dean of the LSU School of Music for information.

BACHELOR OF ARTS DEGREE REQUIREMENTS

Offered by the College of Music and Dramatic Arts since 1998-99, the Bachelor of Arts in Music degree is a viable alternative for those students who prefer a more flexible and less intensive music curriculum than is possible under the Bachelor of Music Education or Bachelor of Music curricula. The BA in Music degree could prepare students for careers in arts administration, the music business industry, for further study at the graduate level in music history or music theory, or other areas. A minor in an area other than music is required for the degree. A grade of “C” or better is required in all music courses.

Areas of Concentration

- Instrumental
- Vocal

Required courses (13 hrs.)—MUS 2300 (5 semesters); and MUS 3771, 3772.

Required courses (12 hrs.)—MUS 1018, 1019, 2018, 2019, 2300, 3749, 3750. Students may select either keyboard or voice as their applied music concentration; proficiency in both is required. Students concentrating in keyboard must complete voice class (MUS 1001, 1002) and two semesters of private voice. Students concentrating in both keyboard and voice must show evidence of satisfactory piano proficiency.

1 Registration in an appropriate music ensemble may be a prerequisite for registering for applied music courses. The requirement for 12 hours of applied music courses may be satisfied by taking six semesters of applied music for three hours of credit.

2 Both courses must be in the same language.

3 To be selected from the following: MUS 4710, 4712, 4718, 4719, 4720, 4721, 4723, 4749.

4 If students declare a minor with less than 18 hours credit, then the additional hours must be taken in electives.

The Department of Theatre emphasizes the liberal arts tradition in its baccalaureate degree program. A rigorous and comprehensive program of study supports concentrations in performance, design/technology, theatre studies, arts administration, and literature/theory/history, in addition to a dance minor. With the addition of Swine Palace, the department has distinguished itself as one of the few programs in the country with an affiliate professional Equity theatre. Students have the opportunity to work alongside world-class artists in every facet of production. The LSU Department of Theatre fosters creativity and originality in its stage productions and scholarships; and offers a learning environment unique to the region.
