1001 Elementary Latin (4) Nonlaboratory reading course in classical Latin; emphasis on comprehension rather than grammatical repetition. Method, vocabulary and contextual clues used to read extensive passages of simple Latin.

2051 Intermediate Latin (4) Prereq.: LATN 1001 or equivalent. Reading comprehension approach to language continued in extensive passages of moderate difficulty; vocabulary building and basic Latin grammatical constructions.

2053 Intermediate Latin (3) Prereq.: LATN 2051 or equivalent. Nonlaboratory comprehension approach includes material of the difficulty of 1st century Latin poetry and prose.

2065 Golden Age Narrative Poetry (3) Prereq.: LATN 2053 or equivalent. Readings from the narrative poets, including selections from Vergil’s Aeneid and from Ovid’s Metamorphoses.

2070 Latin Prose (3) Prereq.: LATN 2053 or equivalent. Readings from Roman prose writers (excluding the historians); the major speeches, letters, and other prose writings of Cicero.

2073 Roman Historians (3) Prereq.: LATN 2053 or equivalent. Readings from Roman historians; selections from Livy’s Ab Urbe Condita and Tacitus’ prose style and philosophy of history of the author.

2074 Golden Age Lyric Poetry (3) Prereq.: LATN 2053 or equivalent. Readings from the lyric poets: selections from the Carmina of Catullus and the Odes of Horace, with attention to emotional content.

4001 Introduction to Information Technology (3) Credit will not be given for this course and LATN 1000, EXST 2000, and ISDS 1100. Introduction to hardware, software, networking, and telecommunications issues; use of application software, electronic databases, and search engines.

4001 Advanced Library Research Methods and Materials (3) Advanced topic in library research; location, evaluation, and use of information for research needs; introduction to the library and to the organization, access, and retrieval of information; hands-on experience in a variety of printed and electronic resources.

2001 Introduction to Information Technology (3) Credit will not be given for this course and LATN 1000, EXST 2000, and ISDS 1100. Introduction to hardware, software, networking, and telecommunications issues; use of application software, electronic databases, and search engines.

4001 Advanced Library Research Methods and Materials (3) Advanced topic in library research; location, evaluation, and use of information for research needs; the organization, access, and retrieval of information; practical experience with multiple formats.

2002 Information Services (3) Prereq.: major or permission of department. Preparation for reference and bibliographic services; selection and scholarly use of specialized reference resources in various subject fields.

7003 Principles of Collection Management (3) Basic principles of control and management of print and nonprint collections, including community and user needs analysis, selection strategies, and tools.

7004 Principles of Management for Librarians and Information Specialists (3) Prereq.: major or permission of department. Basic functions of management and their application to the operations of libraries and information service agencies.

7005 Foundations of Library and Information Science (3) Prereq.: major or permission of department. Must be taken in the first semester of residence or prior to registration for the tenth hour of course work to be counted for the MLIS degree, whichever occurs first. History, theory, practice, philosophy, and current organization of the information service professions.

7008 Information Technologies (3) Prereq.: major or permission of department. Hardware, software, networking, and telecommunications issues relating to technologies used in libraries and information settings; experience with appropriate software packages and search engines.

7011 Information Needs Analysis (3) Prereq.: major or permission of department. Conceptual approaches to meeting information needs of individuals and communities; community analysis, user studies, and reference interview.

7101 Bibliographic Organizations and Resource Development (3) Prereq.: major or permission of department. Conceptual foundations of bibliographic organization and resource development; basic principles and methods of description, organization, and access; bibliographical lists; principles, methods, issues, and trends of resource selection for user populations.

7013 Evaluation of Information Systems (3) Prereq.: major or permission of department. Evaluation of information system performance; systems analysis techniques; development and use of performance measures; strategies for improving system performance.

7101 Media and Services for Children (3) Developmental needs and information services for children, ages birth to eleven; emphasis on literature and uses of literature in schools and libraries.

7102 Media and Services for Young Adults (3) Developmentally appropriate library and information services for young adults, ages 15 to 18; emphasis on literature and uses of literature in schools and libraries.

7103 Media and Services for Young Adolescents (3) Developmentally appropriate library and information services for young adolescents, ages 13 to 15; emphasis on literature and its value in the lives of prepubescent youths.

7105 Graphical Novels in Libraries (3) Prereq.: LIS 7101, 7102, 7103, and 7104. Study of the graphic novel; collection, acquisition, and management issues related to literature; and it uses in public and school libraries, with an emphasis on working with children and young adults.

7106 Advanced Topics in Collection Management (3)