Program Outcome Report

School Counseling

There are currently 10 students enrolled in the School Counseling Program. The program typically receives 20 or so applicants each year, of which 8 to 10 are admitted into the program. The program accommodates both full-time and part-time students. In the past two years, 100% of students graduated within the expected time period. Nine students graduated in the past year. Follow-ups of recent graduates indicate that 100% are Certified School Counselors in the state of Louisiana. Eighty-eight percent of school counseling students were employed within 180 days of graduation. In the past five years, school counseling students have received both state and national awards including the American School Counselor Association's Foundation Award, the American Counseling Association's Ross Trust Award for School Counseling, the Chi Sigma Iota Leadership Essay Award, and the Louisiana School Counselor Association's Student Scholarship.

Community Counseling

The Community Counseling program is transitioning to Clinical Mental Health Counseling. There are currently 20 students enrolled in the Clinical Mental Health Counseling Program. The program typically receives 20 or so applicants each year, of which 10 are admitted into the program. The program accommodates both full-time and part-time students. In the past two years, 92% of students graduated within the expected time period. Eleven students graduated in the past year. Follow-ups of recent graduates indicate that 100% have passed the state licensing exam. Eighty-eight percent of community counseling students were employed within 180 days of graduation. In the past five years, Community Counseling student awards and recognitions include first place in the Chi Sigma Iota and CACREP Leadership Essay Competition and Louisiana Counseling Association Conference Scholarships.