

GOAL

To provide excellent and highly valued IT infrastructure and services that enable LSU to fulfill its broad missions in teaching and learning, research, student life, outreach and community service, and economic development and the promotion of life-long learning in the State of Louisiana.

To be a national leader—in absolute terms—in the creative use, application, and provision of information technology to best position LSU for leadership among U.S. public universities.