PRESENTATIONS / CONFERENCES

“Defining Feminism: Construction and Assumptions of Identity.” Presentation as part of LSU Women’s Center’s Women’s History Month seminar series, March, 2002.

“SILENCE/SILENCED/SNARED: Against ‘Reading Machines’”
Alabama Philosophical Society: Annual Conference, Orange Beach, AL
October 25-27, 2002.

“This essay deals with the works of Martin Heidegger as viewed from a feminist perspective with the intention of suggesting alternative, feminist readings of Heidegger’s corpus.”

“Sous Rature: Inscribing Nothing Into the Heart of Being”
Alabama Philosophical Society: Annual Conference, Orange Beach, AL.
October 24-26, 2003.

“Herein, I will delineate the difference between the Derridian reading of Being and Heidegger’s intent. Through a discussion of the Greek notion of truth and how it refers to both truth and untruth simultaneously, the Derridian reading of this graphic structure, and Heidegger’s own work, I hope to clarify this particular structure of ‘double meaning’ in an attempt to argue that both descriptions seem equally valid.”

Assistant Coordinator, International Heidegger Conference. May 21-23, 2004.
New Orleans, LA. François Raffoul, Co-coordinator.
