Fair Credit Reporting Act Disclosure Statement

Disclosure

Louisiana State University (LSU), when considering your application for employment, when making a decision whether to offer you employment, when deciding whether to continue your employment (if you are hired), and when making other employment related decisions directly affecting you, may wish to obtain and use a “consumer report” from a “consumer reporting agency.” These terms are defined in the Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA), which applies to you. As an applicant for employment or an employee of LSU, you are a “consumer” with rights under the FCRA.

A “consumer reporting agency” is a person or business that, for monetary fees, dues, or on a cooperative nonprofit basis, regularly assembles or evaluates consumer credit information on consumers for the purpose of furnishing “consumer reports” to others, such as, LSU.

A “consumer report” is any written, oral or other communication of any information by a “consumer reporting agency” bearing on a consumer’s character, general reputation, personal characteristics or mode of living which is used or collected for the purpose of serving as a factor in establishing the consumer’s eligibility for employment purposes. For LSU purposes, a consumer report will consist of a criminal background check, employment verification, reference checking, and may consist of educational verification and civil litigation records check.

If LSU obtains a “consumer report” about you, and if LSU considers any information in the “consumer report” when making an employment related decision that directly and adversely affects you, you will be notified before the decision is finalized and be provided with a copy of the “consumer report.” You may also contact the Federal Trade Commission about your rights under the FCRA as a “consumer” with regard to “consumer reports” and “consumer reporting agencies.”
