Course description
This seminar is designed to introduce students to the historical and contemporary issues related to U.S. foreign policy. We will first briefly review the history of American foreign policy in the 20th century with an emphasis on national security issues. Then the course will proceed with an in-depth coverage of major groups and institutions involved in formulating American foreign policy. The particular focus will be on the roles of the presidency, Congress, executive branch (e.g., State Department), interest groups, mass media, and public opinion.

Required readings
There are two required textbooks for the course that can be purchased at the LSU Union, Chimes, or Co-op Bookstores:

In addition to these texts, a few chapters, articles, and documents will also be required. They will be available online (following the web link in the syllabus) or on Moodle for this course. All the readings must be completed before the first class for which they are assigned.

Course requirements
The final grade in this course will be based on four main components: (1) two in-class examinations, (2) one project and its presentation, (3) four in-class quizzes, and (4) class participation.

Summary of the grade components:
50%  Two in-class exams (1st exam: 25%; 2nd exam: 25%)
25%  Project (project 15%; PPT in-class presentation 10%)
15%  Four pop quizzes
10%  Seminar participation
1. Two in-class midterm examinations (50% total; 25% each)
   The exams will be a combination of multiple choice, short answer, and essay questions. Each exam will be worth a total of 25% of the student’s final grade. Questions will be based on the student’s comprehension of both the assigned reading materials and the class lectures.

2. Project and class presentation (25%):
   Each student will have a class presentation in PowerPoint on one from the list of project topics. It will be a joint project prepared by several students, though each student’s presentation grade will be determined entirely independently from the others’ in the group. I will lay out the parameters for each group topic on February 9. Each student will have approximately 6-8 minutes for his/her individual presentation. To facilitate the coordination among multiple topic preferences, by February 23 you are required to submit to me your top three topic preferences, one of which will be assigned as the topic for your presentation. If I do not receive your topic preferences, I will assign you to one of the topics after considering all the remaining students’ preferences. An assignment sheet listing presentation groups and topics for all students will be handed out in class on February 25 and also posted on Moodle (“Project Group Assignments” file). Only those internet sources that are listed for each topic will be used for preparing the presentation. On the scheduled date for your topic, you should bring your PowerPoint project in electronic form for the class presentation and give me a printed copy of both the PPT presentation and essay. Detailed instructions for the project requirements, format, each topic, deadlines, etc., is provided in a separate file available on Moodle (“Project” file).

3. Four in-class quizzes (15%):
   The quizzes will be multiple choice and the questions will be based on the class readings and lectures. The dates of the quizzes will not be announced ahead of time, so if you know in advance that you will be missing a class for a university excusable reason, let me know early.

4. Class participation (10%)
   Class participation is based on active participation in class discussions. The students are expected to come to class having read the material and able to answer questions and/or engage in informed discussion. This can only be done if you conduct yourselves in a professional manner and are tolerant of other students’ ideas, even if they directly contradict your own personal views.

The breakdown for final grades is as follows:

- 90-100 % = A
- 80-89.9% = B
- 70-79.9% = C
- 60-69.9% = D
- < 60% = F
Project Deadline Extensions and Make-Up Exams
Deadline extensions and make-up exams will not be granted except in properly documented situations of serious illness or major family emergency. The request needs to be made in a timely manner and not later than the second day after the missed deadline or exam. Otherwise, the extension/make-up will not be granted.

Plagiarism Statement
“Academic Misconduct” includes, but is not limited to, cheating, plagiarism, collusion, falsifying academic records, and any act designed to give an unfair academic advantage to the student (such as, but not limited to, submission of essentially the same written assignment for two courses without the prior permission of the instructors, providing false or misleading information in an effort to receive a postponement or an extension on a test, quiz, or other assignment), or attempts to commit such an act. Students should be familiar with the definition of academic misconduct and the Code of Student Conduct, available at http://www.lsu.edu/judicialaffairs/code.htm If a student is found to have committed an act of academic misconduct, s/he will be referred to the Office of Judicial Affairs and penalized appropriately.

Copyright Statement
Unless otherwise noted, the handouts used in this course are copyrighted. By “handouts,” I mean all materials generated for this class, which include but are not limited to syllabi, web pages, quizzes, exams, lab problems, in-class materials, review sheets, and additional problem sets. Because these are copyrighted, you do not have the right to copy the handouts, unless I expressly grant permission.

Students with Disabilities Policy
If you have a disability that may have some impact on your work in this class and for which you may require accommodations, please see a Coordinator in the Office of Disability Services so that such accommodations may be arranged. After you receive your Accommodation Letters, please meet with someone in that office to discuss the provisions of those accommodations as soon as possible. For additional information, check the Office of Disability Services Faculty Handbook.

Equal Opportunity Statement
LSU’s PS 1 assures equal opportunity for all qualified persons without regard to race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, handicap, marital status, sexual orientation, or veteran’s status in admission to, participation in, and treatment or employment in the programs and activities that the University operates. This policy statement applies equally to the teaching and learning environment within all university recognized courses, curriculum and co-curriculum programs.
