PART C: Proof of funding (should be current; within 12 months from start of semester of intended enrollment)

Proof of funding must be recent, in English (or officially translated into English), and include the type of currency if not in U.S. Dollars. All funding must be easily accessible and in the form of liquid assets. NOTE: Proof of funding from a government agency, company or university should be in the form of an award letter that outlines the details of the award, including the duration of the award.

Acceptable types of funding:

- Bank account(s): This type of funding should be in the form of a letter on official bank letterhead and must include: Full name of the account holder, type(s) of account(s), total amount of available funds and the date the letter was issued.
- Bank loans.
- Stocks or bonds that are not part of a retirement plan.
- Statements verifying employment and salary. (NOTE: This type of funding is acceptable only as a supplement to the employee’s bank account.)

Unacceptable types of funding:

- Non-liquid assets, such as property or personal assets (land, buildings, automobiles, jewelry, etc.)
- Insurance premiums and policies.
- Lines of credit.
- Income tax returns.
- Business or company accounts from those which have multiple owners or partners.
- Statements verifying employment and salary from Curricular Practical Training (CPT) or Optional Practical Training (OPT).

PART D: Source of funding & financial certification

Source of funding (check all that apply):

- Personal
- Parent/Guardian or other family member(s)*
- Sponsor* (non-family member)

* If your source of funding is from a U.S. permanent resident or U.S. citizen, please be aware that the U.S. Consulate requires the I-134 Affidavit of Support for visa purposes: https://www.uscis.gov/i-134.

- Other (circle type): government company university other: ________________________________

Certification (to be completed only if your source of funding is personal, family or non-family member; “other” source of funding requires an official award letter – see proof of funding above):

I, ____________________________________________, certify that I will provide financial support in the amount of $_____________ (U.S. dollars) for ___________________________________’s first academic year of study at Louisiana State University (and dependents, if applicable). My relationship to the student is (i.e., parent, friend, etc.): ___________________________. I understand that I will need to provide at least the previously mentioned amount each year for the duration of the student’s studies at LSU. I further certify that the funds are available to the student and the proof of this funding (per the requirements above) is included with this form.

Sponsor’s signature: ________________________________ Date: ______________

Student’s certification (required):

I further certify that the above information is correct and complete, and I shall notify International Service at LSU of any changes in my financial circumstances. I understand that I am ultimately responsible for all anticipated yearly expenses for the entire length of my studies at LSU.

Student’s signature: ________________________________ Date: ______________
