The Office of the Dean of Students leads the LSU Food Pantry efforts to meet the needs of students without food or low in food security. Any student enrolled in the current semester or enrolled for the next regular semester, if between semesters, is eligible to receive assistance. Students are required to present current LSU ID upon visiting the LSU Food Pantry.

Anyone wishing to visit or donate to the pantry can see hours of operation at www.saa.lsu.edu.

Students in Need

The LSU Food Pantry provides non-perishable goods to students in need at no cost to the student. Please visit saa.lsu.edu to view pantry hours and make an appointment to receive food.

Donations

The LSU Food Pantry is in need of volunteers and donations to help meet the needs of our community. Donations of non-perishable food items are much appreciated, as are monetary donations. Food or monetary donations may be made by dropping off at 333 Student Union during open hours of the Food Pantry. Donations via card may be made by accessing the link at www.saa.lsu.edu. For larger food donations, groups are asked to contact care@lsu.edu or 225-578-9442 to make arrangements.
