Re: Graduate School Dean Position

This is a reminder that LSU is conducting an on-campus search for Dean of the Graduate School. The website link for this position announcement can be found at <https://lsusystemcareers.lsu.edu/applicants/jsp/shared/frameset/Frameset.jsp?time=1257458400104>. The Graduate Dean Search Committee, chaired by Dr Louis Day, will begin to review applicants after Thanksgiving break although the position will remain open until filled. Each finalist will participate in on-campus interviews and an open forum at the beginning of the Spring Semester.
