

Have you heard about

Global Studies Residential College?

If you are a student who wants a career that spans the globe,

If you would like your course instructors to hold office hours or review sessions in the residence hall and attend discussions and social occasions,

If you are interested in extra-curricular programs which reinforce and extend lessons learned in the classroom,

If you would like to be paired with an international student in LeJeune Hall when possible,

If you would like to be a part of a community where you are enrolled in the same sections of common courses and are able to study together easily, then Global Studies Residential College is definitely for you!

Commitment

Participants are required to live in LeJeune Hall while participating in the Global Studies Residential College. Students will enroll in common sections of General Education courses with a focus on global issues. These courses will all count as elective or General Education credits applied toward a student's degree program. Most students can finish these hours without delaying graduation.

How to Participate in Global Studies RC

If you HAVE NOT applied for housing, you may complete an application available at the front desk of Grace King Hall, across Highland Road from the Student Union. On the application list Global Studies Residential College in LeJeune Hall as your first preference. If you have already applied for housing with a different first preference, you must complete an "Application Preference Change" available in Grace King Hall.
