
THIS ASSOCIATION will be made up of those who understand and appreciate the importance of literature and the arts, and who desire to help through their own contributions to continue The Southern Review's role as one of the most valuable and vital journals in America.

PARTNER: $10,000 or more

BENEFACTOR: $5000

GUARDIAN: $2500

PATRON: $1000

SPONSOR: $500

CONTRIBUTOR: $250

PROVIDER: $100

ALLY: $50

All donors to the Friends will be recognized in each issue of The Southern Review. Those who give at the Provider or Contributor levels will receive a one-year subscription, those who give at the Sponsor level will receive a five-year subscription, and those who give at the Patron level and higher will receive a lifetime subscription to The Southern Review.

In addition, those who give at the Patron, Guardian, Benefactor, and Partner levels will receive as an expression of our gratitude an original signed and numbered print of artist Barry Moser's live oak woodcut, the image that adorns our masthead and which symbolizes the history and legacy of The Southern Review. Mr. Moser has printed 150 copies of the live oak on 9 1/2" by 12 1/2" handmade paper; these works of art will be made available only to those contributors to Friends of The Southern Review. No further editions of this print will be made.

Support The Southern Review; your gift makes a difference.
