

Counseling Services

There is a counseling service available to clients in need of help with regards to the loss of their pet and/or help with decisions regarding treatment or euthanasia. The counselor, Mrs. Stephanie Johnson, LCSW, is located in the LSU School of Veterinary Medicine's Office of Student and Academic Affairs and can be reached at 578-9547.

Examination room 5 serves as a visitation/conference room for clients and where client present euthanasia can also be performed. A white board outside the room can be used to reserve this room if necessary.
