PRO-U525.A EXCEPTIONS TO THE COMPETITIVE SOLICITATION PROCESS

This procedure provides a list of commodities which Procurement Services may authorize be procured without formal or informal competition, but may have additional processes that are required. For an all-inclusive list of exceptions to the competitive solicitation process, please refer to LAC 34:XIII.525.A. Notwithstanding the information contained in this procedure, the application of an exception to the competitive solicitation process is ultimately determined by Procurement Services.

Important Notes and Guidelines:

1. For purchases of goods and services that do not apply to this procedure, refer to POL-U501 for additional information and direction.
2. Departmental users shall not make purchases which exceed their delegated purchasing authority.
3. If a Supplier requires a signature on an agreement, contract, or any other form, the document MUST be submitted to Procurement Services for review/execution prior to making the purchase.
4. If a master or preferred contract for goods and/or services exists, exceptions listed in this procedure do not apply. The master or preferred contract MUST be used.
5. The exceptions listed in this procedure do not apply to the purchase of taggable, moveable property purchased (moveable property is defined as items of a non-expendable nature costing or being valued at $1,000 or more-inclusive of freight, taxes, installation and professional fees with a life expectancy of one (1) year or greater).
6. Purchases for all exceptions listed in this procedure MUST be approved by the appropriate party and the procurement authority referenced in each exception (i.e. Procurement Authority: LAC34:XIII.525.XX) MUST be included on all documentation.

Action by:
