

Ag Fellows

2018 Future Leaders Program
November 15, 2018

The LSU College of Agriculture is excited to host promising minority leaders from across the state on campus for Ag Fellows! The Ag Fellows program is one of our premier initiatives to recognize and recruit Louisiana's top minority scholars. It is our goal to educate the nation's top minorities who will make a difference not only in the state of Louisiana but across the world by solving some of the global challenges we face today.

Sample Program Schedule

- 8:30 a.m. Check in on the LSU Campus
- 9:15 a.m. Welcome from the Deans of Agriculture
- 9:30 a.m. Departmental Visits for students and guests
- 10:30 a.m. Student tours with Les Voyageurs and Parent/Guest session with CoA Staff
- 11:00 a.m. Light Lunch & MANRRS Student Speaker
- 11:30 a.m. Scholarship Awards Announced

The Ag Fellows program will award three scholarships to students who attend the program. We invite you to apply for Ag Fellows using the link below:

<https://goo.gl/2Fj1Mr>

The application deadline is November 5, 2018.