Below is information about the adjuncts who will be teaching for us this spring.

Jeffrey Brooks (JD, Tulane Law School; BA Geography/Anthropology, Vassar College) will be collaborating with Dr. Wu in the 7910 e-Discovery course. Professor Brooks is the Preis PLC Director of Advocacy and Professional Practice and Director of Externship Programs at the LSU Paul M. Herbert Law Center. Prior to joining the Law Center faculty, Prof. Brooks practiced law as an Assistant Corporation Counsel in the Special Federal Litigation Division of the New York City Law Department, where he was a trial attorney representing the City of New York and the New York City Police Department in federal civil rights cases, which involved extensive e-discovery processes.

Charity Cantey (PhD Curriculum and Instruction, LSU; MLIS, LSU; BS Education, LSU) will be teaching 7104 Non-Fiction for Children and Teens. Dr. Cantey is the Middle and High School Library Media Specialist at the LSU Lab School.

David Floyd (BS Anthropology, LSU) will be teaching 7705 Introduction to Museum Management. Mr. Floyd is currently Director of the Rural Life Museum in Baton Rouge. He has also served as director of the Vermilionville Historic Bayou Attraction in Lafayette, the Audubon State Historic Site in West Feliciana, and the Kent House Museum on Alexandria.

Wendy McLain (MLIS, LSU) will be teaching 7604 Principles of Records Management. She currently serves as Manager, Enterprise Content & Records Management for the Valero Energy Corporation. She has previously served as Director of Records Management for Amedisys, Inc., Document Management Department Manager for Jacobs Engineering, and Records Manager for the Louisiana Department of Environmental Quality. Ms. McLain is currently the President of the Institute of Certified Records Manager.

Will Monroe (PhD Educational Leadership and Research, LSU; MLIS, LSU) will be teaching 7807 Information Literacy Instruction. Dr. Monroe is currently serving as Interim Co-Director for the Library and Information Technology at the LSU Paul M. Hebert Law Center. He has previously served as Head of Instruction Technology at the Law Center, and as an Instructional Design Contractor for the Vermont Law School.

Will Olmstadt (MS Library Science, University of Kentucky; MS Public Health, University of Texas Health Science Center, Houston) will be teaching 7404 Health Sciences Information Centers. Mr. Olmstadt is Interim Director and past Associate Director of the Health Sciences Library at the LSU Health Sciences Center in Shreveport. He also served as a Librarian at the Washington University of St. Louis, which included duties as the Clinical Resources Librarian for St. Louis Children's Hospital.