When the IRB Requests Revisions

It is recommended you use Chrome or Firefox when using GeauxGrants. You can login through myLSU or by https://www.lsu.edu/geauxgrants/.

- Uncheck Complete to make changes.
• On the left side of the page, click the triangle with the center exclamation point to address the issue.

• The page to be revised will appear. Click the triangle with the center exclamation point on the page to see the IRB Chair’s comments.

• In addition to revising the form, you have the option to reply to the Chair’s comment by clicking the Reply hyperlink.
Once your message is typed, click Post for the IRB Chair to be able to view your comment and close the window.
• Make the requested changes on the application. Once all changes are made, check Complete at the top of the page.

• Go to the Assignment page by clicking the top left column. Click I am done towards the bottom of the page. It will then route to the IRB for review.
