Announcements for the Week of November 26, 2018

Degree Progress Information

The Graduate School has a helpful ‘Steps to Graduation’ for Master’s, Doctoral, and Online programs laying out when certain steps should be taken by students. Use the links below to access these documents.

- Master's Steps to Graduation
- Doctoral Steps to Graduation
- Online Steps to Graduation

All enrolled student forms can be accessed here.

Calendars with important dates are available. Continue to monitor your deadlines.

If you have any questions about the procedures for Graduation, please visit our frequently asked questions.

Professional Development Opportunities

The Comparative Literature Program is now accepting abstracts and panel proposals through December 15, 2018 for the 3rd Annual Languages and Literature Conference Comparative Literature Graduate Association LSU Women’s Center March 29 – 30, 2019. This conference is open to Graduate and Undergraduate participants in all disciplines. We encourage submissions that address the conference theme of Home, Community, and Culture through literature, film, music, performance, etc. Abstracts of 300 – 500 words should be sent as Word Documents to clgalsu@gmail.com by December 15th. More information is available by visiting: https://www.lsu.edu/hss/complit/clga2019.php

The Faculty Technology Center has a series of trainings in the upcoming months. Topics covered include Creating Accessible Documents, Moodle 3- Basic and Beyond (good for GTAs who have never used Moodle before!), and more! Visit the LSU Training and Event Registration for more information.
Events

The LSU Women’s Center Presents

BREAKFAST BREAK

Friday, November 30th
8:00 a.m. - 9:15 a.m.
LSU Women’s Center | 5 Union Square
Free continental breakfast provided

Join us for Getting to the Next Level where we will share tips and tricks for advancing your career. The session will include panel discussions and networking opportunities.

The Women’s Center will begin hosting Breakfast Break Friday, November 30 from 8:00 a.m.-9:15 a.m. in the Women’s Center (located at 5 Union Square). This month we will discuss how entry and mid-level professionals can take their career to the next level. We are asking that people RSVP as we will be providing a continental breakfast.

Funding Opportunities

The Office of Multicultural Affairs would like to announce a graduate assistant position opening in our office for Spring 2019! This is a four-month GA position that focuses on Latinx student programming, oversees daily operations of the Genesis Tutoring Center, and advises the Genesis Mentoring program.

To apply: interested graduate students would need to submit a CV/resume, cover letter, and transcripts (unofficial transcripts are accepted for initial interview) to Wes Heath (weheath@lsu.edu) by Friday, December 7th. Interviews will be held on a rolling basis until the position is filled.

If you have any questions, please reach out to Wes Heath or the Office of Multicultural Affairs at oma@lsu.edu.

Please send events of graduate-level interest to gradcom@lsu.edu by the preceding Thursday at 4:00pm. Submissions should relate to academic news and events only and be of broad general interest to faculty, staff, and graduate students. Publication of submissions is at the discretion of the editors and the Dean of the Graduate School.

Please refer to our guidelines for announcement submissions for more information.