WHY WE STARTED VERYAPT

VeryApt was born from the simple realization that the small things about an apartment are often the most important: a friendly doorman, lots of sunlight in the living room, a running trail nearby, or that amazing hole-in-the-wall Thai restaurant across the street. We understand that the frustrations of apartment hunting are universal, but share a belief that it doesn’t have to be. We know what makes an apartment truly feel like home is unique for each person and that’s why our focus is on bringing you personalized recommendations based on timely, relevant, and real user reviews. We’ll be there every step of the way to help you find your perfect apartment.

WHAT RESIDENTS THINK ABOUT HIGHLAND/PERKINS

★★★★★ Review by LSU Grad Student  BURBANK ESTATES
The location of the apartment is in close proximity to campus, which is very nice. The neighborhood is nice and is made up mostly of undergraduate and graduate students. The only drawback is that Burbank Drive accumulates a good bit of traffic at certain times of the day; however, it is definitely manageable.

★★★★★ Review by LSU Grad Student  THE DISTRICT
It’s next to Sprouts (like Whole Foods) and next to a lot of nice places along Perkins. It’s about a 5 minute drive from Perkins Rowe (shopping, best nearby movie theater) and about 10 from the mall of Louisiana. In the other direction, you’re only about 10 minutes from LSU campus. Whatever food or common activity you’re looking for, you should be able to find it within 15 minutes of here. It generally seems safe.
Garden District
Youngest, Hippest, and Chicest Neighborhood

ABOUT GARDEN DISTRICT

Do not let the suburban feel of the neighborhood confuse you; the Garden District houses lively bars, delectable restaurants, and homey coffee shops. The hip area attracts young artists for its creative community, students for its proximity to campus, and families for its natural beauty. So living here means having a lively community.

Poets Corner is the best! All the benefits of the Garden District, walking distance to the lakes, very liberal friendly neighborhood.
Downtown
Living in the Heart of the Action

ABOUT DOWNTOWN

Many LSU students prefer to go Downtown after class to study in the plentitude of coffee shops or go out at night to the exciting bars. Living downtown means there is always something happening right outside your door. There are spectacular bars and restaurants, entertaining live music and comedy clubs, and beautiful parks.

LAKE TOWERS

Great neighborhood. Complex is on the edge of Spanish Town. Only a few blocks to the state capitol, Veteran’s Park, downtown Baton Rouge, the river. Easy walking to any of these locations. Nice park with a lake (really more of a pond) just behind the complex. Complex entrance is from the I-110 access road only.

ABOUT SOUTH BATON ROUGE
South Baton Rouge is close enough to the action of Downtown and campus, but far enough to have a dense suburban feel. Being much quieter than its surrounding neighborhoods makes it a perfect place for families or individuals who want to escape the city’s fast-paced lifestyle. There are many restaurants, grocery stores, and gas stations close; so everything you need is less than a five minute drive away.

Baton Rouge, 3000 July St

Review by LSU Graduate Student
“It’s in close proximity to the LSU campus and makes it easy to walk and reach my classes. Don’t have to depend on the buses. Good interiors. The management is slow and unorganized in responding to problems, but that’s most of the places, so it’s bearable. Best part is that it’s located so close to the lake and only 3 mins walking distance to it.”

“Overall the apartment is pretty nice for the price. It has wood floors, included furniture, recently upgraded Internet services, basketball, tennis, volleyball, gym, computer lab, and a pool. The property is fairly well maintained. Only gripe is that many residents don’t pick up after their pets. Also the kitchen is quite small. Maintenance is pretty responsive.”

EDWARD GAY APARTMENTS

Review by LSU Graduate Student
“Overall, the experience has been good. The setting is majorly a family setting. The residential staff are awesome. A principal concern is the condition of the room. This could be due largely to the attitude or behavior of those living in those spaces. Taking responsibility for the room, to keep them clean helps to reduce presence of cockroaches and mold. Often times you notice some drainage issue within the compound. The facility workers are awesome, highly responsive.”

“This apartment complex is really nice. The front office staff is friendly and there are office hours on Saturday. They also allow rent to be paid online. If you input a maintenance ticket, the staff is responsive and friendly. There is a gym included and two swimming pools. There is also a really nice lake with sidewalks around it for walking. In addition, there is a children’s playground, a tennis court, and some outdoor grilling equipment.”

“I enjoy living at Turnberry, but the main reason most people end up here is because there are no breed restrictions for pets (as a husky owner, this is hard to come by, and most places will not allow my dog). The amenities are amazing, especially the gym. The location is far from campus, but in a great location. My main complaint is that maintenance issues are frequent, and maintenance is slow to respond. It is also rather expensive to live alone as a graduate student here.”

Review by LSU Graduate Student
“This place has very nice apartments with good amenities, including a pool, public outdoor grills, gym, parking garage, and Amazon Hub locker inside the apartment complex to keep all of your packages (not just those from Amazon) secure. The downside is that management is slow with maintenance requests, the hub locker is semi-frequently down so you may have to wait a bit (usually not more than a few hours though) to be able to access your packages.”

4th SOUTHGATE TOWERS 8.4 AMENITY RATING

4th TURNBERRY PLACE APARTMENTS 10.0 AMENITY RATING
Baton Rouge

Review by LSU Graduate Student
“I enjoy living at Turnberry, but the main reason most people end up here is because there are no breed restrictions for pets (as a husky owner, this is hard to come by, and most places will not allow my dog). The amenities are amazing, especially the gym. The location is far from campus, but in a great location. My main complaint is that maintenance issues are frequent, and maintenance is slow to respond. It is also rather expensive to live alone as a graduate student here.”

EMBASSY COURT APARTMENTS

Baton Rouge, 4010 Gourrier Ave

Review by LSU Graduate Student

“The property manager is the best ever! She resolves most issues almost immediately. It is also quiet and feels safe.”

BLOX AT BRIGHTSIDE

Baton Rouge, 1855 Brightside Dr

Review by LSU Graduate Student

“Quiet, chic, affordable, cozy European-like condos that are close enough to the university to be convenient and far enough away to feel distant. Convenient to grocery stores and shopping.”

LABELLE FOUNTAINE APARTMENTS

Baton Rouge, 2236 Perkins Rd

Review by LSU Graduate Student

“Overall I really like this apartment. The location is great - far enough away from LSU to avoid raucous undergrads, close enough that there’s a bus stop at my front door. I can walk to a grocery store, a coffee shop, and several bars and restaurants. There is lots of natural light, hardwood floors, a dishwasher, a gas stove, and a washer/dryer on site (although not in-unit). My property management company is relatively good. They give me sufficient space but have always been quick to respond to calls if I have an issue. The only downside is that my rent has increased every year I’ve lived here.”
Townhomes are apartments in older buildings, typically a few stories tall. They usually do not have a doorman, an elevator, or many amenities, but can be cheaper and more spacious than the apartment and condo units in high-rises.

WHY YOU SHOULD CONSIDER A TOWNHOME
- Cheaper
- Larger floor plans
- 3+ bedrooms available
- More privacy

WHY YOU MAY WANT TO AVOID A TOWNHOME
- No doorman
- Less convenient locations
- Older construction
- Limited amenities
- More maintenance issues

Finding a townhome
Townhomes can be challenging to find because they tend to be individually owned and do not have full time leasing managers. Townhome listings are typically available ~60 days in advance. You can find a townhome by searching online listings, contacting a landlord directly, or by working with VeryApt’s Concierge Team who can help identify some options.

Preparing for a townhome search
Most LSU Grad students opt for larger properties in order to live closer to other students and simplify the housing search. That said, there are plenty of wonderful townhomes - be prepared to visit more properties to find that perfect home, carefully examine the pros/cons, and move quickly if you find a unit you love.

TIPS AND ADVICE

Reliable Landlords
Check online reviews and talk to previous tenants to find out about your landlord. Look for one that responds quickly to maintenance requests and has a history of returning deposits.

Noise and Neighbors
Sounds often travel well through townhomes and you can easily be disturbed by barking dogs, music, or construction. Check out the surrounding area to get a sense for what it may be like.

Lease Terms
Leases with independent landlords are negotiable. Check your lease for restrictions on sub-letters and visitor policies. You may be able to avoid a rent increase by locking in a longer lease.
