

BETA THETA PI

— MEN OF PRINCIPLE —

BETA THETA PI 2019-2020 MEMBERSHIP CONTRACT

As a member of Beta Theta Pi at Louisiana State University, and A MAN OF PRINCIPLE I will honor Beta's founders and my chapter brothers by committing to:

Cultivation of the Intellect

- Maintaining a GPA at or above the All Men's Average.

Responsible Conduct

- Following the letter and spirit of Beta Theta Pi's Risk Management Policy, IFC rules and policies, the LSU Beta Chapter Social Contract, and campus rules and policies.

Mutual Assistance

- Completing at least 10 hours of service per academic semester.
- Participating in the semester philanthropy event.
- Participating in at least one other quality campus activity. (This may be an on-campus, community-wide, or a job)

Integrity

- Paying all financial obligations on, or before the due date.

Trust

- Attending all required chapter events, including but not limited to:
 - Pledge and chapter meetings. Members are allowed two excused absences per term, along with one unexcused; excused absences must be submitted no shorter than 24 hours in advance and approved by the executive board. 80% of chapter meetings must be attended per semester.
 - Recruitment events.
 - Ritual events.
 - Events and workshops required by the campus.

BETA THETA PI

— MEN OF PRINCIPLE —

A MAN OF PRINCIPLE I will honor this chapter's commitment to maintain a safe and responsible social atmosphere by:

- Remaining in good conduct throughout the entirety of all events, defined by anything a reasonable observer would consider a Beta Theta Pi event, in consistency with the Five Core Values.
- Going out of my way to ensure the safety of others at all events, including my guest(s), even if it is inconvenient to do so.
- Not consuming any alcohol before or during any event in which I have volunteered or have been appointed as a sober party monitor.
- Respecting the judgment of my brothers in regards to my behavior should they deem it irresponsible, neglectful, or belligerent in any manner.
- Not, under any circumstances, use or possess any form of illegal substances, nor will I tolerate those who do.
- At no point haze, attack, or otherwise physically, mentally, or verbally abuse my brother nor his guest(s).
- My guest(s) and I will ride on the provided means of transportation to and from all events unless alternate provisions have been arranged and approved by the VP of Risk Management or President in advance.
- In the case of an event for which transportation has not been provided by the chapter, I will remain present for the entirety of the event.
- Reporting any violation of the Membership Contract to the proper authority, be it the Risk Manager, President, LSU Police Department, or the University.
- In the event that I am a guest at another organization's event, I will adhere to these guidelines herein mentioned, and uphold myself as a Man of Principle.

By signing this document, I acknowledge that I have read and agree to the above terms, conditions, and rules. I understand that being a member of Beta Theta Pi means holding myself to a high standard, and that if I demonstrate the inability or unwillingness to meet these obligations then I will voluntarily offer my resignation. I take full responsibility for all of my actions, and am aware of the Louisiana State University Beta Theta Pi Membership Contract and all its references. I understand that obstructing this contract may lead to penalties, fines, or other forms of punishment, as determined by the University, Beta Theta Pi's Administrative Office, the Kai Committee, and/or the Chapter's Executive Board.
