“Having worked with the LSU Greek Community for eleven years, I can confidently say that this community is unlike any other. With 41 organizations across 4 councils, I truly believe the Greek Community can offer a place for students to matter and belong. Our staff is so lucky to get to support many of LSU’s best and brightest as they join and lead our fraternities and sororities. We look forward to meeting our future Greek Tigers and helping them find their new home away from home.” - Beth Newell, Director of Greek Life
At LSU, fraternities and sororities are founded upon values of friendship, leadership, and service; and the LSU Greek community continues to offer immersive experiences for centuries doing just that. LSU Greek Life has existed for over 150 years and during that time, tens of thousands of members have found incredible brotherhood and sisterhood, graduated with honors, contributed to serving the local community, and found their home away from home while in college.

Our community is fierce and inclusive, and our members care deeply about one another. We believe any student who joins will discover a community that encourages personal growth, supports academic success, and provides fun times with brothers and sisters!
Students living on campus must have an LSU meal plan. Housed fraternities and sororities offer new members the opportunity to eat at the chapter house.

Within the first week of joining, you will have the option to alter your Tiger 12 meal plan to the Greek 8 meal plan.

It is important to note that a fraternity/sorority may not require a new member to eat all meals at the house unless this expectation is communicated during the recruitment process.

Guidelines for living in a chapter facility varies from chapter to chapter.

First-year students may not live in the house.
THE GREEK SUITE

The Greek Suite is a space for every Greek Life member to gather, whether they have a chapter facility or not.

It’s conveniently located in the heart of campus, on the 3rd floor of the LSU Student Union.

You’ll find tables and chairs for meeting or lounging, plus free printing and other resources for Greek students.

Joining a fraternity or sorority gives you bonds of brotherhood and sisterhood. A sense of Greek camaraderie and friendship is found among members of each chapter, as well as the feeling of Greek Unity throughout all of LSU’s campus.

Greek Life introduces students across all councils, majors, and walks of life who have each joined their organizations on similar principles. This community connects students with people they may not have gotten to know or become friends with otherwise.

With over 7,000 students involved in Greek Life, you will see Greek members everywhere. Our chapters also have large alumni networks and career opportunities to aid you after you graduate!

Fraternity or sorority affiliation provides students with experiences that connect them for life. Shared values, goals, and ideals connect chapter members to one another and provide common bonds throughout their college experience and after. We often say, “It’s not four years, it’s for life.”
The purpose of college is to advance one’s education and earn a degree. Greek-lettered organizations are committed to their fraternity and sorority value of academic achievement. Providing an atmosphere that fosters members’ academic self-responsibility and accountability is of utmost importance. Many chapters assist new members in developing strong study habits and time management skills, making the adjustment to college easier. Fraternity and sorority members are represented in various academic honor societies including Omicron Delta Kappa, Phi Kappa Phi, Phi Beta Kappa, Alpha Lambda Delta, Phi Eta Sigma, Gamma Beta Phi, and Order of Omega.
PHILANTHROPY & SERVICE

LSU Fraternity and Sorority members are known for their commitment to philanthropy and community service. Members are empowered to make a positive impact on the community by doing good and serving others, whether that is through time served or money raised and donated to local and national causes.

Every fraternity and sorority has their own philanthropy and/or local charities whom they support each year. Chapters host philanthropy events, that include friendly competitions, fundraisers, and bringing awareness to these important causes. Organizations also partner with local service initiatives to give back to the greater Baton Rouge community. Chapters volunteer at a variety of locations like local schools, food banks, and community centers.

The community also comes together every spring semester for Greek Week, our annual week-long service event, where we partner with Habitat for Humanity to build homes for local families in need. This event is unique to LSU and over the last few years, our community has built over 38 homes. Outside of building the homes, chapters also raise money for Habitat for Humanity, in total we have raised over $2.2 million.

Philanthropy and community service promote unity among members, cultivates an appreciation for difference, and build a proud sense of responsibility to help those in need.

LEADERSHIP & INVOLVEMENT

GROWTH STARTS HERE

Fraternities and sororities are self-governing, which allows students the opportunity to shape their chapter, membership, and leadership experience. Student leaders who serve on executive boards, committees, or governing councils are provided even more opportunities to refine and gain leadership skills in areas of communication, delegation, public speaking, conflict resolution, decision-making, event planning, risk management and so much more. The skills you gain during your time in Greek Life translate to life after college both personally and professionally.

You can gain leadership experience by getting involved right when you join or in a later year. Members in the community often say, “You get out, what you put in.” This means when you get involved, take on leadership roles, and attend optional programs, events, retreats, and workshops, you will find yourself gaining more from this experience than you could have imagined.

Members can take on leadership roles within the chapter and within the larger community by serving on chapter and council executive boards, sitting on a chapter committee, joining Order of Omega, becoming a Greek Ambassador, applying to serve on a committee, or becoming a lead for the Greek Leadership Team.

You will also see Greek members involved in on-campus club, sports, and leadership roles outside of Greek Life.
ORDER OF OMEGA

Order of Omega is the leadership and scholarship honorary organization for Greek members only. Its purpose is threefold: 1) to recognize students who have attained a high standard of leadership in inter-Greek activities, 2) to encourage them to continue along this line, and 3) to inspire others to strive for similar conspicuous attainment; to bring together the most representative fraternity and sorority members and to create an organization which will help mold the sentiment of the institution.

GREEK LEADERSHIP TEAM

Greek Leadership Team is a group of students in our community who plan and execute our favorite signature programs and events, including Greek Week, Empower, and Songfest.

The Greek Leadership Team selects committee members to help plan, facilitate, and execute these programs each year.

This team allows students to increase leadership opportunities and learn directly from Greek students what programs and experiences the community wants to see!

ON-CAMPUS LEADERS

In addition to leadership in various Greek organizations, members of the community also engage in other leadership positions on LSU’s campus.

Fraternity & sorority members seek leadership roles in many other organizations, including Student Government, athletic teams, Tiger Girls, Golden Girls, Dance Marathon, Tiger TV, Bat Girls, Resident Assistants, intramural sports, and various other clubs and honors societies.
COMMUNITY EVENTS

The core values of the Greek community are present every day; however, they shine even brighter through community programming and events. Our community events are planned by the Greek Leadership Team, and/or Council Leadership and these programs are hosted each year.

EMPOWER WEEKEND

Empower Weekend is a leadership retreat for new fraternity and sorority members to help kick-start their leadership journey and find community within the larger Greek Life community.

NEW MEMBER FOUNDATIONS

Each semester, new members are onboarded and welcomed to LSU Greek Life through their council specific New Member Foundations program. This program focuses on including a community overview, standards and expectations, various campus resources, sexual assault prevention, hazing prevention, various risk management resources, and bystander intervention training.
HAZING PREVENTION WEEK

LSU Greek Life participates in National Hazing Prevention week each September as a part of the community hazing prevention and awareness efforts. All councils participate to bring awareness through programs, speakers, and social media.

OFFICER INSTITUTE

Each January, the over 300 new chapter leaders participate in Officer Institute to prepare and get equipped to manage and lead their chapter. Education and development focus includes chapter management, standards and expectations, policies and procedures, health and safety, event planning and registration support, and campus resources.

MICHAEL ZIBILICH
MENTAL HEALTH SPEAKER

Michael’s son, Keller, lost his life to suicide. Keller was a member of Sigma Chi at LSU. Greek Life invited Michael to speak to the community for the first time in spring 2022. Michael has returned to share his son’s story every spring.
GREEK WEEK

Since 2004, the Greek community has partnered with Habitat for Humanity of Greater Baton Rouge to build homes for families who need them. Over the years, the community has donated over 20,000 hours of service, raised over $2.3M through year-long fundraising efforts, and built 38 houses. Greek Week brings together the aspects of brotherhood and sisterhood, service, and leadership. Members of our community are given the opportunity to be leaders in the greater community while bonding with fellow Greeks through service in the largest Greek-wide philanthropic effort of the year.

WOW

On the first Wednesday of every month during the semester, NPHC hosts Wild Out Wednesdays (WOW) in Free Speech Plaza. Chapters from the Divine 9 step and stroll and showcase the unique culture specific to the Historically Black Greek Lettered Organizations with energy, passion, and community.

SONGFEST

In the spirit of competition, the Greek community has held Songfest for over 100 years. What originally began as a men’s singing competition has evolved into a choreographed dance competition among LSU fraternities and sororities. Guided by a yearly, central theme, each team has complete creative control over their more narrowly tailored theme, choreography, costumes, and set design.
RECRUITMENT & MEMBERSHIP INTAKE DEFINED

Recruitment and Membership Intake are two types of selection processes for joining fraternities and sororities at LSU. The Multicultural Greek Council (MGC) and National Pan-hellenic Council (NPHC) refer to the selection process as Intake. While the Interfraternity Council (IFC) and Panhellenic Council (PHC) refer to their process as Recruitment.

Students interested in participating in Recruitment or Membership Intake should first and foremost learn about the process, research the organizations, and—most importantly—understand the expectations.

Approximately 75-80 percent of the students who participate in the recruitment and intake processes are selected each year. The processes of fraternity and sorority recruitment and of intake are referred to as selection processes because there are no guarantees for membership in the selection processes.

Fraternity and sorority membership is a lifetime commitment with responsibilities that include financial commitments, participation requirements, and academic and behavior standards.

Once joining, membership is voluntary and the benefits are endless!
MGC & NPHC

Membership selection is referred to as “Intake” for NPHC organizations and “Recruitment” for MGC. Selection for both groups has three important components: the in-depth education program, the pre-initiation orientation, and the initiation ceremony. Each organization has its own specific process that may vary in time, content, and expense. Alumni advisors supervise the selection procedures and are present at all activities.

Intake and Recruitment dates are determined by each respective fraternity and sorority. The LSU Greek Life office determines policies regarding the timeline and requirements of the process—not membership selection. Neither the Council nor the University may interfere with membership selection processes and decisions.

IFC & PHC

For men participating in IFC fraternity recruitment process, it is important to note that receiving a bid does not guarantee initiation. The new member period must be 8 weeks or less for IFC fraternities and includes a period of getting to know the new members and active members. It is possible that a new member could be asked to relinquish their membership at any point prior to initiation if the fraternity makes that determination.

For women participating in the PHC Sorority Recruitment Process, it is important to note that each chapter has their own GPA requirements for joining. The new member process must last no longer than 8 weeks for PHC sororities. It is possible that a new member be asked to relinquish their membership at any point prior to initiation if the sorority makes that determination. Letters of recommendation are not required.

Although the mechanics of the recruitment process are coordinated by the Panhellenic Council (PHC) and the Interfraternity Council (IFC), the membership selection practices and procedures are determined by each respective fraternity and sorority. Neither the respective councils nor the University may interfere with membership selection processes per this status.
The Interfraternity Council (IFC) is the governing body of 16 fraternities on LSU’s campus. IFC establishes guidelines for managing the processes and activities of the chapters. The IFC Executive Board is responsible for overseeing all community-wide programs and events and for executing the formal recruitment process.

The purpose of the council is to promote unity among chapters; to serve as the liaison between the IFC community and the University; and to see that all rules, policies, and regulations passed by the council are followed by the fraternities. The council also provides leadership and programs for fraternity growth and development.

IFC HIGHLIGHTS

IFC hosts various programs and events for the fraternal community at LSU throughout the year.

Mental Wellness
Through IFC’s partnership with
Toby Trowbridge
IFC President

“I can say with full confidence that joining Greek Life at LSU has put me in the best possible position to grow as a person, a friend, and a leader. The ample opportunities provided to members to lead and serve whether at the chapter level, the council level, or the greater Greek Life community level, gives an opportunity to everyone to grow and prosper while being a part of greater community. Being a part of a Greek organization here at LSU will provide you with resources, relationships, and opportunities that give you the best possible chance to succeed not only here at LSU, but in the years after as well”. -Toby

SAFE SOCIAL ENVIRONMENTS

IFC also has also invested in the program - Beers Aren’t Bad, for the fraternal community where speakers come to campus and speak about how to create safe social environments.

Crawfish Boil

Through IFC’s annual crawfish boil, the IFC community was able to raise over $10,000 for Greek Week and Habitat for Humanity.

It is free to register and participate in the process. Upon receiving a bid or invitation to join a fraternity, an IFC new membership charge will be assessed through your chapter’s dues to the council. You must complete the recruitment application to participate in the process.

EARLY BIDS: IFC Fraternities may extend bids to eligible Potential New Members (PNMs) prior to the formal recruitment process. Each fraternity has a finite number of early bids and may extend them from June 1 through the end of Round 2. An early bid may only be issued by a chapter president or recruitment chairman. Other chapter members are not authorized to offer bids. Should this happen, those bids are null and void.

RECRUITMENT ROUNDS: The IFC Formal Recruitment Process is comprised of 3 rounds. Potential New Members will visit all 16 fraternities over two days for Round 1. PNMs will visit up to 8 fraternities during Round 2 and up to 3 fraternities for Round 3 each of which will last one day. Bids will be distributed on the final day upon completion of the formal recruitment process. Learn what to wear during Rounds.

365 RECRUITMENT

IFC Fraternities are encouraged to recruit year-round, so the formal recruitment process is not the only opportunity to join an IFC organization. This more informal recruitment process is led by the individual fraternities should they choose to do so.

Sigma Nu transforms society through the commitment to the Fraternity’s founding principles: leadership and ethical living. Being a part of a special group of guys at Sigma Nu has brought me triumphs, lessons, and a brotherhood. The men that surround me in the chapter are described as leaders, intelligent, and I could go on, but most importantly they are my best friends. The atmosphere that has been created at Sigma Nu transforms young men into men that are going to be ready to take on life once their schooling has concluded.

Greek Life at LSU means a lot to me and my personal growth throughout the past couple years. I have been in the presence of great leaders and people who seek to be not only successful but also make people around them better. The Greek Life community has been a great influence to myself, and my goal is to reach the incoming classes on what potential they hold as leaders. -Jack Wall, Chapter President

Lambda Theta Alpha Latin Sorority, Incorporated is excited to expand to LSU! As the first Latina sorority, LTA was established in 1975 to cater towards the needs of Latinas in higher education by providing a support group. Its focus was to integrate into the social, political, and community service arena that other students had been involved with. Together, as a united front they could compete, collaborate, and assist with any student run programs.

Although the cultural climate has changed, those ideals still resonate with the sorority. LTA has a motto, “Latin by tradition, not by definition.” As a non-exclusionary sorority open to all ethnicities and backgrounds, the women who join LTA today still feel the need to promote those same values on their campus.

The actions of the sorority’s Founding Mothers have allowed independent women on campus to feel a sense of belonging thus, achieving their highest potential. As a result, Lambda Theta Alpha has come to define a new role for the universal woman - one with education, goals, and vision in hope of great success. LTA believes all women should be given the opportunity to make their mark on the world.

Interested in becoming a founding member? We are currently in the process of establishing a chapter at LSU and invite you to our upcoming recruitment events. The Panhellenic Council (PHC) is the governing body of 13 sororities and facilitates the formal recruitment process. 12 of the 13 sororities participate in fall formal recruitment.

The PHC is comprised of leaders from all affiliated PHC chapters that provide guidance, support, and foster the development of the sorority community.

Circle of Sisterhood is a non-profit organization founded by sorority women. It is our Panhellenic community’s philanthropy. The foundation raises money to break the barrier between education and poverty. It is a mechanism for sorority
Hannah Godchaux
PHC President

“When coming to college, I immediately knew in my heart that I wanted to be a part of something bigger than myself and join a sorority. My experiences as a Panhellenic woman have shaped me into the woman I am today. The forever friendships, endless opportunities, and constant support system make me fall more and more in love with our Panhellenic community each day. I absolutely cannot wait to see the impact each of you will make in our Panhellenic community.” - Hannah

For too many girls and women around the world, access to quality education is often limited. Two-thirds of all illiterate adults in the world are women, and not even 7% of the world’s population is college educated. Ultimately, more and more educated girls will mean stronger and healthier villages, communities, and entire countries.

It is our job not only as women but members of the Panhellenic community to fight for this injustice and help support and provide for the education of women across the globe.

Sincerely,
Taylor Davlin

The Panhellenic Executive Council and Recruitment Counselors (called Gamma Chis) compose the recruitment team which ensure that potential members are informed and supported through the process. From the start of formal recruitment, potential new members (PNM’s) are placed in a small group of fellow PNM’s and are assigned a Gamma Chi. Gamma Chi’s are active members of sororities that serve as recruitment counselors. They support and guide PNMs throughout the formal recruitment process. Gamma Chi’s are disaffiliated from their chapters during the formal recruitment process to provide unbiased support to their PNM’s.

Gamma Chis will explain the recruitment process, answer questions, and help with problems that may arise to be able to support their PNM’s. Potential New Members will have daily contact with their Gamma Chi to review the day’s activities and receive additional information they may need.

Outside of the formal recruitment process, Panhellenic’s Associate Chapter, Sigma Alpha, conducts their own recruitment process. In fall of 2024, Sigma Alpha’s recruitment will take place August 26th-29th. Their recruitment features an Ice Cream Social, Information Night, Philanthropy Night, and Preference Interviews! Women interested in joining Sigma Alpha must attend a minimum of two nights of recruitment including Preference Interviews and pay a $20 recruitment fee. To learn more, check out Sigma Alpha’s chapter page on how to connect with them!

IMPORTANT REGISTRATION DETAILS

Formal Recruitment dates are set for August 19th- August 25th starting with an Ice Water/Convocation round on August 19th. For the most accurate, up-to-date information regarding all sorority recruitment related matters, please visit our website at lsu.edu/greeks/community/phc.php

Recruitment registration opens May 1st and closes on August 5th at midnight. The cost will be $150. Registration is required to participate. Following registration, each potential new member will receive a confirmation email with a copy of the 2024 Girl Talk magazine, which provides additional recruitment details and information.
LETTERS OF RECOMMENDATION

Letters of Recommendation are not required for women interested in joining a Panhellenic sorority. However, if you have a close family member or friend who would like to submit a letter, they can find information for each organization on the Panhellenic website. Many chapters no longer accept letters of recommendation, so please check the websites prior to submitting any letters. Letters of recommendation will not impact your potential invitation for membership.

COST

The average expenses for all chapters are around $2,000 per semester. The first semester of membership is typically the most expensive as there are often one-time expenses that average out to around $600. Detailed financial information is provided to all potential new members in their Girl Talk magazine. Additionally, you can find individual chapter costs on the Greek Life office website and linked in the @LSUPANHELLENIC Instagram LinkTree.

Meal Plans
Some chapters offer meals for a fee in their on-campus house. Many of these chapters require new members pay this fee regardless of an existing LSU Dining meal plan or plans to dine off campus.

Learn more about meal plans and reducing existing meal plan costs.
LEGACIES

A legacy is typically defined as a granddaughter, daughter, or sister of an initiated sorority member unless a national organization recognizes additional relatives. Each chapter has its own policies regarding legacies. Being a legacy of a chapter does not ensure an invitation to join that sorority.

Potential New Members will gather with their Gamma Chi groups and make first round of selections based off of chapter videos. Dress comfortably as you will not be meeting any chapter members.

Day 2 & 3 - Philanthropy
