Important Notice: For residents of all states except: Alabama, District of Columbia, Florida, Kentucky, Maryland, New Jersey, New York, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, Utah, Vermont, Virginia, and Washington; WARNING: Any person who knowingly and with intent to injure, defraud, or deceive any insurance company or other person, or knowing that he is facilitating commission of a fraud, submits incomplete, false, fraudulent, deceptive, or misleading facts or information when filing an insurance application or a statement of claim for payment of a loss or benefit commits a fraudulent insurance act, is/may be guilty of a crime and may be prosecuted and punished under state law. Penalties may include fines, civil damages, and criminal penalties, including confinement in prison. In addition, an insurer may deny insurance benefits if false information materially related to a claim was provided by the applicant or if the applicant conceals, for the purpose of misleading, information concerning any fact material thereto.

ALABAMA RESIDENTS — Any person who knowingly presents a false or fraudulent claim for payment of a loss or benefit or who knowingly presents false information in an application for insurance is guilty of a crime and may be subject to restitution fines or confinement in prison, or any combination thereof.

DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA AND RHODE ISLAND RESIDENTS — Any person who knowingly presents a false or fraudulent claim for payment of a loss or benefit or knowingly presents false information in an application for insurance is guilty of a crime and may be subject to fines and confinement in prison.

FLORIDA RESIDENTS — Any person who knowingly and with intent to injure, defraud, or deceive any insurer files a statement of claim or an application containing any false, incomplete, or misleading information is guilty of a felony of the third degree.

KENTUCKY RESIDENTS — Any person who knowingly and with intent to defraud any insurance company or other person files an application for insurance containing any materially false information or conceals, for the purpose of misleading, information concerning any fact material thereto commits a fraudulent insurance act, which is a crime.

MARYLAND RESIDENTS — Any person who knowingly or willfully presents a false or fraudulent claim for payment of a loss or benefit or who knowingly or willfully presents false information in an application for insurance is guilty of a crime and may be subject to fines and confinement in prison.

NEW JERSEY RESIDENTS — Any person who includes any false or misleading information on an application for an insurance policy is subject to criminal and civil penalties.

NEW YORK RESIDENTS — Any person who knowingly and with intent to defraud any insurance company or other person files an application for insurance or statement of claim containing any materially false information, or conceals for the purpose of misleading, information concerning any fact material thereto, commits a fraudulent insurance act, which is a crime, and shall also be subject to a civil penalty not to exceed five thousand dollars and the stated value of the claim for each such violation. This notice ONLY applies to accident and disability income coverage.

PENNSYLVANIA and UTAH RESIDENTS — Any person who knowingly and with intent to defraud any insurance company or other person files an application for insurance or statement of claim containing any materially false information or conceals for the purpose of misleading, information concerning any material fact thereto commits a fraudulent insurance act, which is a crime and subjects such person to criminal and civil penalties.

VERMONT RESIDENTS — Any person who knowingly presents a false or fraudulent claim for payment of a loss or knowingly makes a false statement in an application for insurance may be guilty of a criminal offense under state law.

VIRGINIA RESIDENTS — Any person who knowingly and with intent to injure, defraud, or deceive any insurance company or other person, or knowing that he is facilitating commission of a fraud, submits incomplete, false, fraudulent, deceptive or misleading facts or information when filing a statement of claim for payment of a loss or benefit may have violated state law, is guilty of a crime and may be prosecuted and punished under state law. Penalties may include fines, civil damages and criminal penalties, including confinement in prison. In addition, an insurer may deny insurance benefits if false information materially related to a claim was provided by the applicant or if the applicant conceals, for the purpose of misleading, information concerning any fact material thereto.

WASHINGTON RESIDENTS — Any person who knowingly provides false, incomplete, or misleading information to an insurance company for the purpose of defrauding the company commits a crime. Penalties include imprisonment, fines, and denial of insurance benefits.

I declare that, to the best of my knowledge and belief, the statements made in this application are complete and true. I agree that the coverage applied for is subject to the terms of the plan and shall become effective on the date or dates established by the plan, provided the evidence of good health is satisfactory.

Section 5 — AUTHORIZATION For the Release of Information

To: (1) Any licensed physician, medical practitioner, hospital, clinic, or other medically related facility; (2) any insurance company or health maintenance organization (or similar type organization or institution); and (3) the MIB Inc., formerly known as Medical Information Bureau. So that eligibility for life or disability coverage can be determined, I authorize you to give any data or records you may have about me or my mental or physical health to The Prudential Insurance Company of America and/or its subsidiaries and, through it, to its reinsurers, authorized agents, and the MIB Inc., formerly known as Medical Information Bureau. This also applies to any dependent proposed for coverage in the application. This authorization is valid for the lesser of (1) two years after the effective date of any coverage issued in connection with it or (2) 30 months after the date it is signed. A photocopy of this form will be as valid as the original. The person(s) who signed this form (1) have received a copy of the "Medical Information Notice" and (2) may have a copy of this authorization if they wish.

Medical Information Notice

When we evaluate your request for insurance, the state of health of the person(s) for whom insurance is requested is, of course, extremely important to us. Consequently, we need to ask you questions about the health and medical history of each person. In addition, you are also requested to authorize any physician or hospital to provide us with reports, if necessary, about the health of each person. In some instances, we may require a physical examination.

Information regarding your insurability will be treated as confidential. We may, however, make a brief report thereon to the MIB, Inc., formerly known as Medical Information Bureau, a non-profit membership organization of insurance companies, which operates an information exchange on behalf of its members. If you apply to another MIB member company for life, disability, or health insurance coverage, or a claim for benefits is submitted to such a company, MIB, upon request, will supply such company with the information about you in its file. We may reveal this information as necessary, to a doctor, if we find a serious health problem that you do not know about. We may also reveal this information to persons conducting mortality or morbidity studies. We will, if you ask, give you a description of other circumstances when we disclose information about you without your prior authorization.

You have the right to see any of the information we collect about you and to make corrections if necessary. If you ask, we will furnish you with instruction on how to exercise this right. In addition, upon receipt of a request from you, MIB will arrange disclosure of any information in your file. Please contact MIB at 866-692-6901. If you question the accuracy of the information in MIB's file, you may contact MIB and seek a correction in accordance with the procedures set forth in the Federal Fair Credit Reporting Act. The address of MIB's information office is 50 Braintree Hill Park, Suite 400, Braintree, Massachusetts 02184-8734. Information for consumers about MIB may be obtained on its website at www.mib.com.

It is required that you be given this notice.

Please read it carefully and keep it for your records.
