GERM 3061 German Discourse

Prereq.: GERM 2102. Intensive practice in listening comprehension, oral and written communication; special problems in German structure; thematic treatment of contemporary issues in German speaking countries. Tu, Th 10.30-12
Instructor: Gundela Hachmann
e-mail: ghachmann@lsu.edu

You have gone through the first two years of German. Great! Now is the time to think about staying on the ball. If you stop learning now, you will quickly lose your German. Continue and become more fluent and knowledgeable in the German language and more versed about the culture of Germany, Austria, and Switzerland.

In this course, we will use pop music, films, blogs and newspapers to talk, write, joke, and laugh about all things German. You will have a chance to discover new singers and bands, enjoy feature films about young people and their adventures or dramas, and learn about current topics of interest in the news. You can practice all four skills: reading, writing, listening and speaking with topics that speak to your own personal interests.