

Women's, Gender, & Sexuality Studies

Graduate Minor Requirements

Women's, Gender, and Sexuality Studies is an interdisciplinary program that examines the multiple roles gender plays in everyday life, the impacts of gendered practices on social, cultural, and political behavior and thought, and the intersections of gender, race, sexuality, ability, age, and class.

A Graduate Minor in WGS supports interdisciplinary research and provides students with an understanding of the impact of gendered practices on social and cultural behavior and thought and a theoretical foundation for analyzing and responding to these gendered practices and their outcomes.

Required courses for the Graduate Minor in WGS

As a student pursuing a graduate minor in Women's, Gender, and Sexuality Studies, you will be required to complete 12 hours of coursework, including the following:

WGS Required Courses (6 Hours)
