

WOMEN'S AND GENDER STUDIES UNDERGRADUATE PROGRAM

Women's and Gender Studies (WGS) is an interdisciplinary program that examines the multiple roles gender plays in everyday life, the impacts of gendered practices on social, cultural, and political behavior and thought, and the intersections of gender, race, sexuality, ability, age, and class.

The undergraduate program offers several WGS courses as well as many electives through various departments. You can tailor your own undergraduate program to fit your interests while taking courses dealing with gender in the arts, humanities, social sciences, politics, the law, and the sciences.

THE CONCENTRATION

The Bachelor of Arts degree in Liberal Arts with a concentration in Women's and Gender Studies is an interdisciplinary degree that transcends traditional departmental lines and brings together insights from various disciplines, while fostering particular expertise in the student's own field of interest. This program prepares students for workplaces and fields of academic study that increasingly emphasize flexibility and the ability to extrapolate knowledge from one field to another.
