

James M. Smith, Jr.
Endowed Scholarship in Romance Languages

Eligibility Requirements:

- Full time undergraduate student at Louisiana State University & Agricultural and Mechanical College
- Majoring in a Romance language (French, Spanish, Italian)
- Overall LSU GPA of at least 3.00
- Minimum 3.5 GPA in the major

Selection:

Recipient will be selected by faculty or appropriate committee in the Department of Foreign Languages and Literatures and the Department of French Studies.

Amount of Scholarship:

- Up to $1700 per academic year to be credited to recipient's account for the payment of tuition (one-half of award for fall semester and one-half of award for the spring semester).

Retention of Scholarship:

Upon recommendation of the faculty, recipient may retain scholarship for additional years. The scholarship shall terminate when the recipient receives the undergraduate degree.

Withdrawal of Scholarship:

The scholarship shall be withdrawn for any of the following reasons:

- Disciplinary probation.
- Failure to maintain the required GPA
- Resigning or "dropping out" of the university.
- Failure to maintain full time status majoring in a Romance language.

APPLICATION

Name: _____ ID Number: 89 - ____ - _____

Date of Birth: _____ Telephone number: _____

E-mail: _____

Overall GPA _____ Major/Minor GPA _____ Anticipated Graduation Date: _____

Classification: ____ Freshman ____ Sophomore ____ Junior ____ Senior

Major/minor classes & grades received.

- Attach a brief (max. 1 page) statement explaining why you decided to study a Romance language and how this scholarship will impact your career trajectory.
- Submit your completed application, the statement described above, and a copy of your unofficial LSU transcript to Dr. Christian Fernandez via email to cferna2@lsu.edu. Please scan all materials in one file.

Application deadline is February 28, 2020