LSU WAR MEMORIAL COMMISSION

REVISION

The LSU War Memorial Commission, established on July 1, 1996, is hereby dissolved and the formation of the LSU War Memorial Commission (Phase II) is established, effective February 1, 2000.

PURPOSE (MISSION PHASE II)

The LSU War Memorial Commission (Phase I) project was completed with the dedication of the World Memorial Plaza on October 8, 1998 in memory of those LSU alumni, faculty, staff and students who died while serving honorably in the Armed Forces of our country during America’s wars of the twentieth century since World War I.

The LSU War Memorial Commission began Phase II plans with the designation of the Commission as the primary successor occupant of the Memorial Tower when vacated by the LSU Museum of Art.

As the primary successor of the Memorial Tower, the LSU War Memorial Commission (Phase II) accepts the responsibility for developing an appropriate design for the purpose of providing suitable space for the military museum, archival repository, computerized database (kiosk), wall of honor, plaques and other appropriate recognition to honor the men and women from LSU who served honorably in the Armed Forces of our country.
