III. GENERAL POLICY AND PROCEDURES

It is the responsibility of LSU to notify and/or secure SACSCOC approval prior to implementing a substantive change as well as to follow all procedures and timelines as delineated in the commission’s “Substantive Change Policy and Procedures” (see Source A):

This university policy statement applies to all faculty or staff members who have the authority to initiate, review, approve, or allocate resources to changes that may be considered a substantive change. Academic and support units, committees, or administrators proposing and/or approving changes that are substantive in nature must inform the university’s accreditation liaison in writing via the Office of Institutional Effectiveness. The accreditation liaison shall be appointed by the President, the university’s chief executive officer, upon the recommendation of the Executive Vice President & Provost.

Once the Office of Institutional Effectiveness and the accreditation liaison have reviewed the proposed change(s) and determined that it qualifies as a substantive change as defined by the Commission’s policy, the President or their designee via the accreditation liaison will notify SACSCOC and submit all relevant materials as specified in SACSCOC policy. The Office of Institutional Effectiveness SACSCOC shall maintain records of all substantive change activity. Academic and support units proposing substantive changes should not implement those changes until receiving written confirmation from the accreditation liaison and/or Office of Institutional Effectiveness that the required SACSCOC substantive change process has been completed.

Failure to comply with SACSCOC substantive change policy and procedures may result in the loss of the university’s Title IV funding, or the university may be required to reimburse the U.S. Department of Education for any money it received for programs related to the unreported substantive change. Additionally, the university may be referred to the SACSCOC Board of Trustees for the imposition of a sanction, monitoring, or for removal from membership.

This policy statement shall be reviewed annually and updated by the accreditation liaison and Office of Institutional Effectiveness as changes occur to the SACSCOC policy on substantive change.
