PART ONE: SEARCH FOR ROOMMATES

The online housing portal opens at 1 p.m. on April 5, 2021, for you to begin searching for roommate(s)/suite mate(s), creating a “Roommate Group,” and/or joining an existing Roommate Group.

Your preferred roommate(s)/suite mate(s) must have the same housing preference, also known as resident type, as you.

For example, students approved to live in the Mass Communication Residential College can only request other students who are also approved residents in the Mass Communication Residential College. If you indicated a preference to live in traditional housing options, you’ll only be able to search for and add students who are also interested in traditional housing options.

ROOM TIP: Changing your housing preference after room selection time slots are established in late April will impact your room selection priority. You will get a new, later time slot for your new housing preference.

Email our team at housing@lsu.edu if you need to change your housing preference. It will take about 48-hours for your time slot to update in myLSU, and possibly longer if you have to be approved by a residential college first.

PART TWO: CHOOSE YOUR ROOM & PULL IN ROOMMATES/SUITE MATES

You gain access to select your room and pull in roommate(s)/suite mate(s) into your room/suite based on the date you completed your housing contract or changed your housing preference.

Compare your time slot with members of your roommate group. See who has the earliest time slot and make that person the group leader so they can select your room or suite as early as possible.

Your room selection time slot will be viewable on the “My Details” page in the housing portal in late April.

GENERAL TIPS

You must have a completed 2021-22 housing application and contract on file to participate in the online room selection process.

Your network connection may be slower than normal if a large volume of students are logging in to the housing portal at the same time. Please be patient and persistent in logging off and trying again. You are guaranteed to get a room assignment with campus housing.

Contracts are for the academic year, both fall and spring semesters. If you cancel your housing contract/room assignment, you are subject to the cancellation fees outlined in the housing contract as well as penalties for not complying with the first-year housing expectation. See lsu.edu/cancelhousing and lsu.edu/exemptions to familiarize yourself with the cancellation policies. Students who cancel with LSU Admissions must also cancel with the Department of Residential Life at lsu.edu/cancelhousing.

ROOMMATE AND SUITE MATE TIPS

You’ll only be able to pull in roommate(s)/suite mate(s) from your roommate group into available spaces who haven’t selected a room already and are the same resident type as you (traditional or residential college). Yes, you can pull in roommate(s)/suite mate(s) who have a later time slot than you.

Accepting someone as a roommate in part one of the process does not guarantee you will be roommates. Only once you and your roommate(s)/suite mate(s) are confirmed in the room/suite are you officially roommate(s)/suite mate(s).

You must select a room/suite with enough available bed spaces (one for each student) in order to pull in your roommate(s)/suite mate(s) into your room/suite. If there are not enough spaces available in the room/suite, you will not be able to invite all of your preferred roommate(s)/suite mate(s).

The online system time stamps the assignment made by each student. If two students try to select the same space, the earlier time stamp will be assigned.

ROOM SELECTION & ROOM CHANGE TIPS

You can only make one room assignment in the online system. If you make a room assignment and want to change it, do not cancel your housing contract as this will delete your contract entirely and you will lose your priority application date. If you need to make a room change, email the Res Life Assignments Team at housing@lsu.edu.

If you are not admitted into your preferred residential college by the end of residential college room selection time, you will participate in the traditional hall room selection process to choose a space in a traditional hall. If a space is available in your preferred residential college, you can select that space and the residential college staff will work to approve you to participate in the program.

Students who do not select their room/suite by the end of room selection will have their room assignments made by the Res Life staff.
ROOM SELECTION GUIDE – UPDATED 5-31-2021

LOG IN
Log in to the Housing Portal via myLSU > Student Services > On-Campus Housing

When navigating in the housing portal, please click on the section on the Progress Bar or the “GO BACK” button on the web page rather than using your browser’s back button.

FIRST-YEAR HOUSING EXEMPTION Tab
First-year students do not need to submit a housing contract in order to request an exemption.

In the housing portal, select First-Year Housing Exemption, and click “APPLY” or “CONTINUE” for the Housing Exemption Request.

See lsu.edu/exemptions for a full list of qualifying exemptions.

ON-CAMPUS HOUSING CONTRACT Tab
All first-year students must complete at least one process to remain in compliance with the university’s first-year housing expectation and inform Res Life of housing needs.

If a student is not requesting an exemption, a contract will need to be submitted. In the housing portal, select On-Campus Housing Contract, and click “GET STARTED” or “CONTINUE” to open the 2021-2022 On-Campus Housing Contract.

MY DETAILS Tab
Housing Preference on the “My Details” tab indicates your current housing preference. You will only be able to see other students with the same housing preference, or resident type, as you.

In this example, Mike’s preference is to live in a traditional residence hall option. During roommate matching, he’ll only be able to see other students whose preference is also traditional residence halls. He won’t be able to see other students who prefer to live in a residential college.
ROOMMATE FINDER & GROUPS

The roommate finder service in the housing portal lets you search for compatible roommate(s)/suite mate(s), create a “Roommate Group,” and/or join an existing roommate group. Using the roommate finder is optional.

When you select your room/suite, you’ll only be able to pull in people in your roommate group who have the same housing preference as you and do not already have a room assignment.

PROGRESS BAR: MY PROFILE

Enter your personal preferences about your room environment, sleep habits and extracurricular preferences.

Your answers will help match you with suggested roommates.

You can come back to this section and change your answers later.

PROGRESS BAR: ROOMMATE GROUPS

On this page, you can create a Roommate Group, join an existing Roommate Group, search for students by PAWS ID, and look at suggested roommate(s)/suite mate(s). You can come back to this section to make changes throughout the spring and summer.

Joining a roommate group after the group or members of the group have selected a room will not automatically add you into their room or suite.

However, once you have created or joined a Roommate Group, you cannot create or join a second Roommate Group. You will have to leave your current Roommate Group in order to create or join another Roommate Group.

Remember you’ll only be able to search for students in the same type of housing as you.

ROOMMATE GROUPS: CREATE GROUP

Allows you to create a group by searching for specific people by PAWS ID to add to your group.

Groups can be as small as 2 and as large as 4 people.
ROOMMATE GROUPS: JOIN GROUP
Allows you to join a group that has already been created. You must input the exact name to find your Roommate Group.

ROOMMATE GROUPS: ROOMMATE SEARCH BY PAWS ID
If you know who you want your roommate(s)/suite mate(s) to be, you can simply enter their PAWS ID here to find and add them to your Roommate Group.

You will only be able to add a person to your Roommate Group if you are the Group Leader.

ROOMMATE GROUPS: SUGGESTED ROOMMATES
Based on your answers in the “My Profile” section, your most compatible roommate/suite mate options appear here. You can view their profile, send a message through the housing portal, or add them to your Roommate Group.

You will receive a message through the housing portal (top left-hand corner) when someone messages you, adds you to a Roommate Group, joins your Roommate Group, or leaves your Roommate Group.

ROOMMATE GROUPS: COMPLETE
When you've reached this screen, you've gone through all the steps of roommate search and selection. You can still access the “Roommate Groups” section of the process to make changes to your roommate(s)/suite mate(s) and your Roommate Group.
Roommate Groups: What Group Leaders See

Your roommate group has been verified.

If you are the group leader, you will be able to make changes to your group order, change who the group leader is, send messages, and view member profiles. If you decide to leave the group, you must make someone else the new group leader.

If you are a group member, you will be able to view member profiles, send messages, or leave the group. Any changes to the group will result in an email automatically sent to all group members.

SELECTING A ROOM

After you log in following the directions on page 3 during or after your assigned room selection time slot, go to the Room Selection step and select an area or location from the Room List to see room availability in that building. You can select multiple areas or locations.

After you click on the area or location, a list of all rooms for that selection will appear. Scroll down the page or click “Next” to see more options. You can view the spaces available in each room before selection. Make sure to look at “Spaces Available in Room” for the amount of available spaces.

AVAILABLE SPACES: Make sure you select a room with enough spaces available for you and your preferred roommate(s)/suitemate(s). If there is only one bed space available in a two-student room, you will be assigned to that available bed space and will not be able to invite a roommate since there are no available bed spaces.

To select a room or suite, simply click on “Select”, scroll down, and then click “Save & Continue” to move to the next step in the room selection process: Assigning Beds.

In this example, Acadian Hall 0325 is a two-student room with two beds available.

If you look at Acadian 0324, you will see a “1” next to “Spaces Available in Room”, which means one bed in that room has already been selected by another student.

In the next example, South Hall 0305 is a two-student room with one bed available. That means the other bed in that room has already been selected by another student. It is also a suite-style room, so you will see that there are only three beds remaining in the suite.

In South 0304, that two-student room has two beds available, so no one has selected a space in that room yet.

SUITE TIP: Make sure you know the suite numbers before selecting rooms.

Floor plans are available on each halls’ web page and the connecting suite room numbers are also listed on the room selection page.

In this example, South Hall 0304 is connected to South 0306. So to place a 4-person roommate group in a suite, you will select both rooms of the suite.
ROOM SELECTION: ASSIGN BEDS

On this screen, you will select your bed. You have ten minutes (10:00) to complete this process. If time expires, the system will time out, you will have to start over, and the space will not be held for you.

If you want to make changes to your assignment (building, room), you MUST do so before assigning beds.

To go back to the list of areas or locations to select a different room, use the progress bar at the top & select “Room Selection” in the system rather than using your web browser’s “back” button.

Click “Remove from Cart” to deselect the room and go through the selection process again.

In example 1, there is 1 available bed space out of 2 total bed spaces in the room.

Click “Select Bed” to trigger the drop down, and then select your bed. In this case, the student will select Acadian 0324-2 and then click “Assign Beds.”

In example 2, you will assign beds for you & your roommate(s).

REMEMBER: The only roommates you’ll be able to pull in are those listed in your “Roommate Group” in the housing portal who do not already have a room assignment.

In this example, there are 2 available bed spaces out of 2 total bed spaces in the room. Click “Select Bed” to trigger the drop down, and then select your bed. In this case, the student will select South 0304-1.

To assign your roommate(s) to a bed, find their PAWS ID under the My Roommates section, click “Select Bed” to trigger the drop down, and then select an available bed. You will notice that the drop down only allows you to select available beds and shows any beds taken.

In this case, the student will select South 0304-2 for the roommate. Follow the same process to place suitmates.

Once you have selected beds for you and your roommate(s), click “Assign Beds.”
In example 3, you will place three students in a suite (2 two-student rooms).

Make sure to look at “Spaces Available in Suite” for the number of available spaces (beds).

In this example, South 0105 and South 0107 have 4 spaces available in the suite. There are 3 students in the Roommate Group, so you will need to select more than one room to assign everyone to a bed in the suite.

Select the two rooms that make up the suite.

SUITE TIP: Make sure you know the suite numbers before selecting rooms.

Floor plans are available on each hall’s web page and the connecting suite room numbers are also listed on the room selection page.

In this example, South Hall 0105 is connected to 0107.

EXAMPLE 3:

REMEMBER: The only roommates you’ll be able to pull in are those listed in your “Roommate Group” in the housing portal who do not already have a room assignment.

Click “Select Bed” to trigger the drop down, and then select your bed.

In this case, the student will select South 0105-1.

To assign your roommate to a bed, find their PAWS ID under the My Roommates section, click “Select Bed” to trigger the drop down, and then select an available bed.

You will notice that the drop down only allows you to select available beds and shows any beds taken. In this case, the student will select South 0105-2 for the roommate.

Suite mate(s) will also appear under the My Roommates section. After assigning you and your roommate to your beds in your room, you will need to assign your suite mate(s) to the bed(s) in the other room.

In this case, the student will select South 0107-1 for the suite mate.

Once you have selected beds for you and your roommate(s)/suite mate(s), click “Assign Beds.”
ROOM SELECTION: REVIEW YOUR SELECTION(S)

On this screen, you will confirm the details of your room selection.

CLICKING “SAVE & CONTINUE” MAKES YOUR ROOM ASSIGNMENT FINAL!

Make sure you have your room and roommates to your liking before reserving your assignment!

You will not be able to go back and change it yourself.

After you complete the process, review your booking and roommate information on the “My Details” tab.

Remember you can only make one room assignment in the online system. If you make a room assignment and want to change it, do not cancel your housing application as this will delete your contract entirely and you will lose your priority date.

To make a room change, work with our staff by emailing us at housing@lsu.edu.

CANCELING YOUR HOUSING CONTRACT

Only cancel your housing contract if you no longer need on-campus accommodations. Do not cancel your housing contract just to make a room or building change.

All LSU first-year, full-time students are required to live in campus housing operated by the Department of Residential Life for the entirety of their first year or be approved for an exemption to the live-on requirement.

If you cancel your housing contract/room assignment, you are subject to the cancellation fees outlined below from the housing contract as well as penalties for not complying with the first-year housing expectation. See lsu.edu/cancelhousing and lsu.edu/exemptions for details.

If you decide to no longer attend LSU, you must cancel your housing contract with us in Residential Life, not just with LSU Admissions. Failure to cancel your housing contract/room assignment results in penalties outlined below.

View the housing contract and review the full cancellation refund & fee schedule at lsu.edu/cancelhousing.
