APPROVAL OF THE MINUTES – August 17, 2022, Staff Senate Meeting

A motion to accept the minutes was made by Senator Jonathan Levesque. The motion, seconded by Treasurer Henri Smith, carried.

GUEST SPEAKER – MARK BIEGER, OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

President Tammy Millican introduced Mark Bieger who serves as the current Vice President of Strategy and arrived on campus on September 1. He is the former chief of staff to the president at the University of South Carolina and former Chief of Staff at the United State Military Academy at West Point, his alma mater. He joined LSU to help improve organizational alignment of all of the LSU campuses throughout the state and help drive the implementation of top priorities.

For more than 28 years, he served in the U.S. Army. He held leadership positions from platoon leader, to company, battalion and brigade commander and staff positions and during his military career he deployed twice to Iraq in support of Operation Iraq Freedom.

He holds a Bachelor of Science Degree in civil engineering from the United States Military Academy and master’s degrees in human resource management from Webster University, advanced military studies from the School of Advanced Military Studies, and national security and strategic studies from the U.S. Naval War College.
Mark Bieger thanked the Senate for the opportunity to present on strategic planning updates. There are two plans in development for the system and the flagship. The Scholarship First Agenda is being created. LSU’s Value and Vision draft is also nearly final.

Bieger mentioned the set structure and what is in action:

- Governance, Integration Committee
- Working Groups (300+) with Faculty, Staff, and Student involvement
- 3 Advisory Boards that include Alumni, Industry, and Community
- Engagement with Faculty/Staff Affinity Groups
- Survey responses reviewed and shared

The working groups are developing goals, objectives, programs, and measures. Building an assessment of architecture. Communications are closely integrated and are developing a marketing rollout plan. They are closely coordinating with the Foundation with regards to the next capital campaign. A view of the planning structure was shared.

Bieger shared some of the feedback from the Advisory Board which are:

- Maintain clear priorities and institutional focus
- LSU must lead to elevate Louisiana State University alignment across colleges and centers is essential
- LSU must remain agile to remain relevant – with rapid changes in industry and society
- LSU must also remain flexible in workforce development in close partnership with business and industry
- LSU graduates are leading in multiple sectors of industry and government
- LSU must be more accessible to the local community in business and workforce development
- THE LSU System should work closely to elevate all parts of the state and region
- LSU must continue to improve external communications
- LSU provides hope and a sense of community

Bieger shared the Values and Vision (Draft) which reads:

Excellence, Integrity, and Community

- Empower Excellence. We commit to the constant pursuit of enriching, innovative, and impactful outcomes in learning, discovery, and service.
- Embody Integrity. We seek truth and act with courage, honesty, and accountability to elevate each other and Louisiana.
- Embrace Community. We champion the strength, talent, and diversity of our people and value the culture and history of our state – together.

LSU is a comprehensive research university, the Flagship of and for the state, focused and committed to build a healthier, prosperous and secure future for Louisiana.
The Scholarship First Agenda is a framework and commitment to elevate students and our state with an institutional focus on learning and discovery. The essential resources are people, partnerships, and priorities. The priorities aligned with objectives to secure our future, to capture our past, and to advance our state. As we work toward a university vision of health, prosperity, and security for Louisiana.

Beiger mentioned some of the framing ideas to secure the future for institutional focus and prioritization. To capture and elevate with inter-disciplinary collaboration and inclusion. Also, to advance the state by creating student, state and community impact.

The floor was opened for questions.

President Millican thanked Mark Bieger for attending today’s meeting.
