Join LSU University College for our Summer Scholars program, an eight-week summer program that prepares selected underrepresented minority students to make a successful transition from high school to college. This summer experience offers students the opportunity to prepare for the academic, personal, and social challenges that they may encounter at LSU. Students are provided with a structured environment conducive to building the fundamental skills and relationships necessary for successful completion of a bachelor’s degree.
Meet with counselors for academic advising, course scheduling, and assistance with career goal development.

Attend study and discussion groups with supplemental instructors and tutors.

Attend academic, self-improvement, and leadership workshops and seminars.

Reside in on-campus housing for the entire summer term.

Enroll in six hours of course work.

Participate in social and cultural activities.

Applications may be obtained or submitted at www.lsu.edu/ssp.

All applications must be submitted no later than March 20, 2015.
