UCFY - SCHOLASTIC DROP SUMMER ONLY (SDSU) PROGRAM

This is a unique program that was designed by University College in order to help students who have been scholastically dropped from the university. SDSU offers the opportunity to regain eligibility for the upcoming fall, but does not guarantee re-entry.

Re-entry may be achieved by obtaining an LSU and overall grade point average of a 2.0, or through a successful appeal for reinstatement, which requires the reduction of BOTH the LSU and Overall quality point deficits to 6.9 or fewer.

In order to take part in this program, students must attend a mandatory orientation session and sign an enrollment contract attesting to their understanding of the program’s requirements and individual academic goals.

Orientation sessions for the UCFY SDSU program will be held in 132 Allen Hall on the following dates:

Wednesday, May 23, 2018  10:00 am
Thursday, May 24, 2018  2:00 pm
Friday, May 25, 2018  10:00 am

To reserve a space at one of these orientation workshops, you must be a current student in UCFY and will need to sign up for the session you wish you attend on the UCFY website.

Expect the workshop to last about 1.5 hours. Once you attend this workshop, your college hold will be lifted and you will be able to schedule your summer classes.

Summer school offers 2 sessions (A and B).

  Session A - meets from June 4 – July 23, with final exams on July 25 or 26
  • You may take up to 12 hours in Session A
  • A maximum of 12 hours may be earned in a combination of Session A and B sessions.

  Session B - meets from June 4 – July 6, with final exams on July 7
  • You may take up to 6 hours in Session B
  • A maximum of 12 hours may be earned in a combination of Session A and B sessions.
